ARRIVAL OF THE INDIAN.

The American Minister Imprisoned in Peking.

IMPORTANT FROM JAPAN.

A Congress for the Italian Question.

Further Delay in Dispatching the Great Eastern.

FATHER POINT, Monday, Oct. 10.

The steamship Indian, from Liverpool at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 28th ult., passed this point at 3½ o'clock this afternoon, and will reach Quebec about 5 o'clock to-morrow morning. Her dates are four days later than those already received.

The steamship City of Washington was also to sail from Liverpool for New-York on the 28th, and the steamship Ariel was to leave Southampton for the same destination on the following day.

The steamship Africa, from New-York, arrived at Liverpool at 7 o'clock on the morning of the 25th ult.

The American ship Charles Buck, nearly loaded for Liverpool, was burnt at Bombay on the 22d of August. She was a total loss.

The ship Benefactor, from Foo-Chow-Foo for New-York, had put back for a survey, having been ashore.

CHINA.

AFFAIRS AT A STAND-STILL—MR. WARD IMPRISONED IN PEKING—THE CHINESE LOSS AT THE PEI-HO.

The China Mail, with dates from Hong Kong to Aug. 10, had reached London.

Nothing of any moment had occurred since the affair at the mouth of the Pei-ho. Two gun-boats and a steamer remained in the Gulf of Pecheli, the rest of the defeated squadron being at anchor principally off the entrance of Ningpore River.

One of the Hong Kong newspapers states that Mr. Ward, the American Plenipotentiary, was still on board his ship, and as little likely to obtain the ratification of his treaty as the English Minister.

Another journal speaks of the probability of his having gone on to Peking, and a Russian dispatch, published at St. Petersburg, says he had arrived in Peking, but was kept in confinement.

Russian authority also states that the loss of the Chinese in the affair at the Pei-ho forts was 1,000 killed. The number of wounded was not stated.

The Hong Kong correspondent of the London Times says that the repulse of the British had not produced any change in the relations with the Chinese.

It was stated that some of the wounded were in the hands of the Chinese, and were well treated.

The state of Admiral Hope's health was serious.

There had been a serious emeute at Shanghai, in which several foreigners had been killed and others wounded. Among the latter Mr. Interpreter Fay, who was in a precarious state. The riot is said to have arisen from the kidnapping of coolies for a French vessel, but the master of the vessel asserts that the Chinese on board attempted to rob him, and that he was compelled to fire upon them in self-defence. The French Minister ordered the coolie ship into port for a strict investigation of the case.

At Hong Kong, Exchange was quoted at 4s. 10½d. @4s. 11½d. A moderate business was doing there and at Canton, and at Foo-Chow-Foo news from the North led to some speculation in tea.

At Shanghai, Exchange was 6s. 0½d.@7s. 0½d New black Teas were 30 ℘ cent. higher than those of the previous season, while the quality was generally somewhat inferior. Tonnage was abundant. Freights to New-York were $5 for Tea and $15 for Silk piece goods.

THE EMPIRE OF JAPAN.

THE GOVERNMENT SEEKS TO EVADE THE FOREIGN TREATIES.

The Japan affairs have assumed a very unsatisfactory position. On the 11th of July the British Treaty was duly ratified. Since then the Japanese Government had attempted to evade it by seeking to confine foreigners to a small island about ten miles from Yeddo. They further sought to establish a new coin as the only one to be used in commercial dealings with foreigners, although, according to the Treaty, foreign coins were to be received at their intrinsic value. The present arrangement of the Japanese produced a depression of sixty-six per cent. The British Consul-General had issued a protest, and stopped trade for the present.

THE ITALIAN QUESTION

A CONGRESS PROPOSED—NAMES OF DELEGATES SUGGESTED—SPAIN DESIRES TO BE REPRESENTED.

It was stated that the conferences at Zurich were again progressing.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the task of the Plenipotentiaries has been diminished by dispatches from Vienna, and that it is believed the conferences will be terminated in a few days, unless fresh instructions should be received. The amended programme is stated to be as follows: A definitive treaty of peace will be signed by the three Powers, when another treaty will be drawn up, by which Austria will cede Lombardy to France, who will make it over to Sardinia. The most difficult point in the double transfer is the debt, and on this head, it is believed, Austria will moderate her demands. Documents will be brought up respecting the Italian Confederation, the restoration of the Dukes, and other unsettled questions, but they can only be signed by the Austrian and French Plenipotentiaries, as Sardinia utterly rejects the restoration of the Dukes, and will not agree to a confederation under the present circumstances.

Spain has requested to be represented, should a Congress take place.

The gossips of Paris and Brussels state that Prince Albert will represent England, the Archduke Maximilian, Austria, at the proposed Congress at Brussels.

The Paris correspondent of the London Spectator says there is still a hitch in the peace negotiations —Austria persists in keeping an Austrian army in Venetia. When this difficulty has been surmounted, the treaty will be signed by Austria and France, and the Congress will be held at Brussels.

The Herald's Paris correspondent says: "The report of France and Austria alone signing the treaty of peace is corroborated by private dispatches, and unless orders to the contrary are received from Biarritz, the fact will no doubt be officially made known before many days."

The fourth and last Italian deputation, from Romagna, was received by the King of Sardinia, a Monza, on the 24th. The following is a summary of the King's reply:

> I am grateful for the wishes of the people of Romagna, of which you are the interpreters before me. As a Catholic Sovereign, I shall myself always retain profound and unalterable respect for the Superior Hierarchy of the Church.
> As an Italian Prince, I am reminded that Europe, having in view the state of the Romagnese people, who demanded prompt and efficient measures of reform, has accepted formal obligations towards your country. I receive your wishes, and strengthened by the rights conferred upon me, will support your cause before the Great Powers. You may rely on the sense of justice—you may rely on the generous love of our country of the French Emperor, who will accomplish the great work of reparation he has so powerfully begun; and who, assured of the gratitude of Italy, and seeing the moderation which has characterized your resolution during the last moments of incertitude, will recognize that in the Romagna the mere hope of a national government suffices to put an end to civil discords. When your numerous volunteers arrived during the days of our national struggle, to enrol themselves under my flag, you knew that Piedmont would not go to war for herself alone, but for our common country. To-day, the unanimity of your wishes and the order which you observe at home, are very gratifying to my heart, and nothing better could insure your future destiny. Europe will recognize that it is here the common interest to finish the era of disorder, and thereby satisfy the legitimate desires of peace."

A decree by the King of Naples extends to June, 1860, the period for the free admission of wheat.

AFFAIRS IN GREAT BRITAIN.

REPAIRS TO THE GREAT EASTERN—FURTHER FROM THE LONDON TIMES ON THE SAN JUAN DIFFICULTY—BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE.

The repairs on the Great Eastern were going actively forward at Portland, but it was considered doubtful whether the ship could be got ready for sea during the month of October. The fittings, and all matters connected with her sea-going equipment, had been placed entirely in the hands of the Marine Department of the Board of Trade, and this, it was supposed, would increase the expected delay. It was thought probable that in a few days the ship would proceed to Southampton, for convenience of receiving materials from London, and for the gratification of excursionists, who continued to visit her in thousands.

The telegraph cable between Malta and Sicily had been successfully laid, and business had commenced upon it.

Thomas Persse has been formally approved as United States Consul at Galway.

The Official Gazette contains an order extending the time for the payment of bounties to seamen until the 30th of November.

The London Times has another editorial on the new boundary difficulty with the United States. It laments that the former treaty should have left any pretext for the question which has arisen, and says that it is a case for the earliest possible settlement. It points out the absurdity of going to war for so trivial a matter, but argues that England must nevertheless assert her rights, if they are plain. The article concludes witn a description of the intimate commercial and other relations existing between the two countries, and laments the effects that war would have upon both.

The British Association for the Advancement of Science has terminated its annual session at Aberdeen. The members, to the number of 200, were entertained by the Queen at Balmoral.

The Earl of Derby had carried out his threat to clear out his Doon estate in Ireland, so far as to have every tenant served with a formal notice to quit. The incentive, it will be remembered, was the difficulty experienced in tracing out a murderer, and the conviction that the tenantry threw impediments in the way of his discovery. The case had attracted much attention.

It was stated that Sir Hope Grant is to have command of the expeditionary force to China, and that 10,000 men are to be sent from India, but none from England.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

LONDON, Wednesday Morning.

Colonel Hawkins, Chief Commissioner of the Oregon Boundary Survey, arrived yesterday, in the capacity of special envoy from Gov. Douglass, in consequence of the occupation of the Island of San Juan by United States troops. Col. Hawkins transacted his business at the Foreign Office shortly after his arrival.

The Times says it has reason to believe that Gen. Harney placed military at posts at San Juan, on his own responsibility, and without instructions from Washington. He declared to the British authorities that he did so because American citizens had been arrested on the island, but that he did not mean his occupation to be permanent, although it was his intention to hold the island till he heard from Washington.

The London Morning Post, referring to the difficulty says, our transatlantic cousins had better watch the progress of Russian power in the Pacific, than quarrel with their best friends and customers, the people of England.

FRANCE.

THE CHINESE WAR—FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.

It is announced that the French force for China will consist of five thousand troops of the line, fifteen thousand marines, six large steam transports, four sailing frigates, and six first-class and six second-class gunboats. Another authority says that the expedition will number from ten to twelve thousand men.

The French steam frigate Sane was wrecked while proceeding from Toulon to Brest. All hands were saved.

French commercial affairs show no improvement. Wheat had advanced both in Paris and the provincial markets. Flour was also dearer. The silk market was inactive.

The Moniteur says, under the pretence that the Press is not free, several journals direct their attacks against the Decree of February, 1852, go beyond the extreme limits of discussion, and are wanting in respect for the law, which is inseparable from the loyal exercise of Liberty.

The Moniteur then explains, that immediately after the measure granted spontaneously by the Emperor, which relieved the Press from the consequences of the warnings received, the Government forebore to make use of the weapons at its command, but it will nevertheless not fail in performing the duty which is imposed upon it, to make the law respected. It therefore informs the papers, that it is decided no longer to tolerate these polemical excesses, which can only be considered as party manœuvres.

The Bourse had been animated and fluctuating. It closed firmly on the 27th at 69f. 35c. for Rentes.

POLITICS IN GERMANY.

REFORMS IN AUSTRIAN SYSTEM OF TAXATION—MILITARY FORCE OF THE CONFEDERATION.

An Imperial order is published, for a Commission with special legislative powers, to organize extensive reforms in the system of direct taxation.

The price of wheat is said to have risen materially, owing to the inferior yield of the last crop.

The Ministers of Bavaria, Saxony and Wurtemberg, who lately assembled at Munich, propose that in order to strengthen the military power of Germany, the contingent of the confederation shall be increased from one and a half per cent. of the population to two per cent.

DENMARK.

OPENING OF THE STATES-GENERAL.

The States-General had been opened at Copenhagen. The President said in his speech, "The Government had but to choose between Federal execution, and the supervision of the whole common Constitution in so far as it relates to Holstein and Luneburg. The Government has chosen the latter, although it does not recognise the competency of a Federal execution."

TUNIS.

DEATH OF THE BEY—HIS SUCECSSOR.

The Bey of Tunis died on the 22d of September. The presumptive heir, Side Sadok, had been installed as his successor. Tranquility was maintained.

INDIA.

DISARMAMENT OF OUDE—COMMERCIAL NEWS.

The Calcutta mail of Aug. 22 had reached England, but the news, generally, was anticipated.

The disarming of Oude had been completed.

It was stated that no official requisition for troops cr China had been made by Mr. Bruce, but in anticipation that he would take this course, the Indian Government had warned two regiments to hold themselves in readiness.

The Calcutta import market was dull.

The crop of indigo will be shorter than anticipated

Freights were declining, and the rates to America had gone down from $10 to $7.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.

Cape of Good Hope advices, from Cape Reach, are to August 21.

Ex-Governor Sir George Grey had returned to England.

Satisfactory accounts had been received from the Livingstone Expedition.

The ship Shah Jeehanpore, bound to the West Indies with coolies, was burned at sea July 1. The captain and crew, 64 in number, were rescued, but all the coolies (350) perished.

A deficiency of grain at the Cape had caused a rise in the price of provisions.

AUSTRALIA.

The Melbourne mails of Aug. 19 reached Aden Sept. 19.

There is no political news of importance.

Business during the month had been very quiet, but the arrival of the English mail had created both a commercial and monetary improvement.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Transportation Over the Plains—Award of Contracts by the War Department—Movements of Secretary Floyd and Seclusion of Secretary Cass—The Mexican Question in England—Miscellaneous.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 10.

The War Department, to-day, awarded contracts for Army transportation as follows:

Route 1.—From Missouri River to Utah, and to the posts on the way, to Irwin & White.

Route 2.—From Leavenworth, or Kansas City to New-Mexico, to Moore & Boice.

Route 3.—From Principal Dépôt in New-Mexico to the several posts in that Department, to Moore & Boice.

The bids of Irwin & White per hundred pounds each hundred miles, are for January and February, $2; for March, $1 75; for April, $1 45; for May, June, July and August, $1 19; for September, $1 50; for October, November and December, $1 75.

The bids of Moore & Boice per hundred pounds each hundred miles are for January and February, $2; for March, $1 75; for April, $1 20; for May, 98c.; for June and July, 90c.; for August, $1 20; for September, $1 50; for October, November and December, $1 75.

The Department is unable to determine what is economical in these contracts, as it is impossible to anticipate the amount of transportation events may require at periods so distant. The troops in Utah may be withdrawn, or may have to be reinforced; the San Juan affair may cost a million, when a few weeks ago thousands were estimated.

There is no intention on the part of the successful bidders to carry out the contracts; and mark the prediction, Russell, Majors and Waddell, will continue to furnish the transportation.

Secretary Floyd is expected from Old Point Comfort to-morrow morning.

Secretary Cass has for a week past persistently refused to receive visitors. What is in the wind?

[FROM THE REPORTER FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 10.

A private letter from London says that our Minister, Mr. Dallas, is exerting himself to procure the recognition of the Mexican Liberal Government by England, while other prominent gentlemen are similarly engaged.

Until the publication of Judge Black's second reply to Judge Douglas, it was understood the latter would leave the public to judge between their two publications without any rejoinder from him; but since Mr. Black's second reply Mr. Douglas, has commenced a rejoinder over his own signature, to appear in a few days. Meantime a volunteer reply to Mr. Black, from one of Mr. Douglas' friends, will be issued.

Reliable accounts received here from Monterey show that Vidaurri has not deserted to the Church party, as reported. An unpleasant difference of opinion, however, existed between him and Degollado, regarding the Administration of Juarez.

So far as known, Gen. Wheat is only a citizen of the United States, who has come to fight the battles of the Liberals. The invitation was extended to him by Gen. Alvarez several months ago.

THE SLAUGHTER OF SENATOR BRODERICK.

Further Details of the Affair—The Death Scene.

CINCINNATI, Monday, Oct. 10.

The San Francisco Times, of the 14th ult., says that, in accordance with our anticipations, the expected duel between Senator Broderick and Judge Terry took place yesterday morning, in a small valley ten miles from Merced Lake. The parties went out of town the night previous, passing the night in separate localities. At 6½ o'clock, Broderick and Terry arrived on the ground, attended by their seconds and physicians—the Hon. J. C. McKibben and Mr. Coulter for Broderick, and Calhoun Benham and Thomas Hayes for Terry. On descending from their carriages, the parties seemed to be in the best spirits, neither appearing anxious or nervous as to the result. About half an hour was occupied in the arrangements. Ten paces were marked off, and the principals took their positions. The seconds divested themselves of their outside coats, white collars, and other articles which might present prominent targets; also of their watches and the coin in their pockets. One of the seconds then read aloud the code duello, which occupied a short time. Mr. Coulter then addressed the two gentlemen, saying he wished it to be understood that he should count "One, two," after the word "Fire," after which he would say, "Stop;" no shot must be fired after that.

During this time the principals maintained their positions, and listened with composure to these details. Judge Terry stood with his head thrown slightly back, looking towards his antagonist. Each held a pistol in his hand, pointed to the ground. Each was dressed in black clothes, and wore a slouched hat. Mr. Broderick stood erect, but with his head rather down. The positions of the two were somewhat different. Judge Terry maintained that of a practiced duelist, presenting only the edge of his person, keeping his left hand and shoulder well behind him. Mr. Broderick, on the contrary, though at first assuming a position somewhat similar to that of Terry, seemed to prefer a careless and less constrained one, and gradually presented more of his body to the fire of his opponent; he held his pistol rather awkwardly, and, seeming to feel this himself, he once or twice turned the wrist of his pistol arm to the right with his left hand, as though endeavoring to comply with some prescribed directions previously given him. From that time he did not raise his eyes until the word was given to fire. Once his right foot got a fraction beyond the line, when Mr. McKibben replaced it. The bearing of Terry, though he assumed a more practiced and motionless attitude, was not one jot more that of an iron-nerved man than was that of Broderick.

At 6¾ o'clock Mr. Coulter pronounced the words, "Are you ready?" "Ready," responded Terry, and "Ready" was uttered by Broderick. Immediately after, "Fire—one, two," was pronounced in moderately quick time. Broderick raised his pistol, and had scarcely brought it to an angle of 45 degrees from its downward position, when, owing to the delicacy of the hair-trigger, it was discharged, the ball entering the ground four paces in advance of him. Terry fired a few instants later, taking deliberate aim. There was a perceptible interval in the two reports. At that instant Broderick was observed to clap his left hand to his right breast, when it was seen that he was wounded. He reeled slowly to the tent, and before the seconds could reach him, fell to the ground, his right leg doubled under him, still grasping his weapon. Terry upon discharging his pistol folded his arms, holding the pistol still smoking in his hands, but did not move from his position. Broderick's seconds ran to his aid, and Dr. Lochr commenced to staunch the wound. The bullet entered just forward of the nipple, and lodged, as was supposed, under the left arm. He was soon afterwards borne into town in his carriage.

Previous to this Terry and his friends left the field driving rapidly into town, and started at once from the North Beach, where a boat was waiting, and proceeded to Oakland, where they took a private conveyance to Benicia; on their arrival at Benicia they took an overland conveyance to Sacramento.

Mr. Broderick was taken to the house of Leonidas Haskell, at Black Point, where he was visited during the day by hundreds of his friends. He was able to speak during the afternoon, but owing to his wounded lungs his articulation was generally indistinct and unintelligible.

The correspondent of the Cincinnati Times says that at 9½ o'clock this morning (16th), Mr. Broderick breathed his last. Gloom and sorrow pervade the whole community. Flags are at half-mast (union down.) The stores are closing, and all the public buildings and even private houses are hung and dressed in mourning.

Fires Near Charleston.

A SAW-MILL AND RICE-MILL BURNED.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Monday, Oct. 10.

The Wappoo steam saw-mills, near Charleston, were burnt on Saturday. They were variously insured in the Home, Metropolitan, and Security Companies, New-York; Phœnix and City, and New-England Companies, of Hartford; with other Companies.

On Thursday night a rice-mill near Charleston, belonging to Daniel Heyward, was burnt. Partly insured in the Home Company, New-York.

BROWNSVILLE ATTACKED BY GUERILLAS—FIVE CITIZENS KILLED—THE MEXICANS SEND AID FROM MATAMORAS—AN EXPRESS DISPATCHED TO SAN ANTONIO FOR TROOPS.

NEW-ORLEANS, Monday, Oct. 10.

Advices from Brownsville, Texas, are received, stating that place was attacked on the 28th ultimo by a band of guerillas, who had killed five citizens, broken open the jail and freed all the prisoners. The most intense excitement prevailed, and the Mexicans sent aid from Matamoras. The guerillas were headed by Cartinas, who shot the Sheriff of Brownsville last July while he was attempting to arrest him. A party of the outlaws, one hundred strong, rode through the city on horseback and had posted sentinels, when Gen. Caravajal and others from Matamoras arrived, and persuaded them to leave. Fort Brown was garrisoned with Mexican troops from Matamoras, and the citizens had formed a patrol guard to keep a watch on the outlaws, who were encamped near the city, two hundred strong. The Mexican General had visited their camp, and obtained a promise from them that they would not molest the city any more. The citizens, however, still expect another attack, as the outlaws boasted they had more on their list to kill. An express had been sent to San Antonio for troops.

The Brownsville Flag, in an Extra, thanks the military and civil authorities of Matamoras for their aid, and blames the Government for leaving them defenceless.

The Sheriff with a posse came down to Point Isabel with the Arizona's mails.

The cause of the difficulty is said to be a desire on the part of Cartinas for revenge for injuries which he alleges he has received.

The citizens of Brownsville had mostly fled to Matamoras, having no faith in the promises of the outlaws that they would not molest them any more.

THE GAME AT PHILADELPHIA—GOOD PROSPECTS OF THE AMERICAN TWENTY-TWO—POSTPONEMENT OF THE MATCH.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Oct. 10.

The Cricket match between the All England Eleven and Twenty-two of the United States, which was to have commenced at noon to-day, was postponed till 3 o'clock P. M., in consequence of the bad state of the ground occasioned by the heavy rains of last night. The players are all in fine trim. The match commenced at 3 o'clock. Lockyer acted as wicket-keeper, and Julius Cæsar and H. Sharp as umpires.

Collis went in with Gibbes, when the stakes were drawn, it being 5 o'clock. The ground was damp and slippery from the heavy rain of the morning, but the bowling and fielding were splendid. Wistar and Gibbes displayed no nervousness, and added materially in swelling the score. Newhall's score of three was made by a square-legged hit, which obtained much applause. Jackson did much of the bowling. In consequence of the inclemency of the weather the attendance did not exceed 1,000. The game will be resumed on Wednesday, to-morrow being election day. The Americans are much pleased with the appearance of the game.

The Episcopal Convention.

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS—AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

RICHMOND, Monday, Oct. 10,

In the Episcopal Convention the Committee on Canons reported adversely as to amending article first of the Constitution so as to locate the Convention permanently at Philadelphia. The report was tabled.

The Committee also reported that canons one and two of 1853 are not repealed by the action of the last Convention.

The order of the day being the amendment to article three of the Constitution, was taken up, and debated at length, without action. The following is the proposed amendment to article three: "Whenever general Conventions are held, the Bishops of this Church shall form a separate House, with the right to originate and propose acts for the concurrence of the House of Deputies, and all acts must pass both Houses."

From New-Mexico.

THE ATTACK ON THE MAILS—DEAD BODIES FOUND ON THE PLAINS.

ST. LOUIS, Monday, Oct. 10.

The Santa Fé mail of the 15th ult. reached Independence this morning. Messrs. Otero, Porter and Crenshaw arrived, and confirm the attack on the mail party. The Indians took all the mules, provisions and clothing, but did not molest the mail, which was taken forward by the next outgoing party. The incoming party found dead bodies of four men, supposed to have been Pike-Peakers. Two subsequent attacks on the outward-bound mail caused the detention of the incoming party, owing to their waiting for the ox-train behind them, having been apprised of the difficulties ahead by a Mexican. The combined strength of two trains probably prevented another attack. A company of cavalry has been ordered to march immediately from Fort Riley to chastise the Indians.

Murder Trials in New-Jersey.

JAMES ADAMS FOUND GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

NEWARK, N. J., Monday, Oct. 10.

The trial of James Adams for killing Stephen Cunningham in a beer saloon in Canal-street, in July last, took place in the Court of Oyer and Terminer today, the jury rendering a verdict of guilty of manslaughter.

The trial of Charles Crane for manslaughter in causing the death of an old man named Peter Gaddis, by striking him on the head with a stone some weeks since, was next commenced, and is still on.

The next case will be that of Patrick Maud for the wilful murder of his sister some months since in the Fifth Ward.

From Turk's Island.

REPORT OF THE BARK DUNBARTON.

NORFOLK, Monday, Oct. 10.

The bark Dunbarton, which took off the passengers from the Quaker City when disabled, is nine day's from Turk's Island, and will leave as soon as possible for New-York. She reports that there were no vessels there when she left, and that the crop of salt was short and scarce at 8 cents a bushel.

The Nicaragua Expedition.

OPINION OF EX-MINISTER LAMAR.

CHARLESTON, Monday, Oct. 10.

The Courier's special New-Orleans correspondent says a letter from Gen. Lamar, ex-Minister to Nicaragua, deprecates fillibusterism. He says there are only two questions left unsettled by the Lamar-Zeadon treaty, viz.: the claims of American citizens, and the opening of the transit route. Both, he believes, will be satisfactorily adjusted.

Case of Bishop Onderdonk.

We are authorized to state that memorials to the House of Bishops are being signed by the Laity of both parties in the Episcopal Church; that waiving all other questions connected with the suspension and restoration of Bishop Benjamin T. Onderdonk, the members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New-York deeply feel that the position of the suspended Bishop is such in this community, and that his persistence for so many years in denying the justice of his sentence, has so shaken the confidence of many members of the Church, that under no circumstances can he resume any jurisdiction in this Diocese, or the exercise of any Episcopal functions, to the harmony and edification of the Church or the glory of Christ, but that, on the contrary, such resumption would lead to great and manifold evils, not confined to this Diocese, but extending to the whole Church.

They therefore pray the House of Bishops that the sentence of suspension be not removed, until Bishop Onderdonk shall have resigned his jurisdiction of the Diocese of New-York.

INTERESTING FROM CHINA.

Participation of the Americans in the Battle of the Pei-ho.

LETTER FROM THE AMERICAN MINISTER.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

I have just received a letter from Mr. Ward, our Minister in China, which, though not intended for publication, contains so much that is interesting to the world, and especially to the American world, that I cannot refrain from sending you some part of it for publication in your widely read paper. M.

U. S. FRIGATE POWHATAN,
OFF THE PEI-HO RIVER, June 30, 1859.

MY DEAR ——: On the morning of the 16th we left Shanghai for the mouth of the Pei-ho River, having in tow the Toey-Wan, a boat chartered by Commodore Tatnall, in which I was to ascend the Pei-ho as far as Tien-tsin. We arrived here on Tuesday morning, the 21st inst., just before daylight. We found near us the following vessels: H. B. M. S. Chesapeake, Highflyer, Fury, Magicienne, Cruiser, Nimrod, Cormorant, transport ship Assistance, (steam,) steam storeship Hesper, Plover, a gunboat, and the Coromandel, tender to the Chesapeake, French steam frigate Du Chayla, and her tender, the Nosogaray. These vessels, with the Powhatan, were all anchored about ten miles from the forts at the mouth of the river, which have been rebuilt since last year. The coast is so shallow as to render nearer approach impossible for large vessels.

About three miles from the mouth of the river, and from the forts, there is a bank about a mile wide, across which no vessels of greater draft than ten feet can go even at high water. When that bank has been passed, you are in the channel of the river, distant from its mouth about three miles, in a direct line from the forts. On our arrival here the following vessels were anchored over that bar, within about two miles of the forts: the gunboats Kestrel, James, Forester, Haughty, Lee, Opossum, Starling, Banterer.

The day we arrived the wind was so high that nothing could be done. The next day, Wednesday, it was blowing a gale and raining very hard. On Thursday the English Admiral called upon me and said he had been up to the mouth of the river, and found it so obstructed by chains as to render further progress impossible without their removal; that he had sent his boat on shore to say that the English and French Ministers had arrived, on their way to Peking, and to require that the obstructions should be removed, so as to enable them to proceed. The reply was that these obstructions had been placed there, not to prevent the Ministers from going to Peking, but to keep out the rebels—which was, of course, untrue, as the rebels have no boats, and never approach by water. They said also that this was not the mouth of the Pei-ho—that the entrance to the Pei-ho was ten or fifteen miles further north, and there the Ministers must go if they wished to reach Peking. For this northern entrance, I refer you to my official letter to the Secretary of State. They promised, however, to remove the obstructions, and, instead of performing their promise, they went on completing them. The Admiral also informed me that he had subsequently given the Chinese notice that he would proceed to remove these obstructions himself on Saturday morning, the 25th inst., as Messrs. Bruce and De Bourboulon, finding the doors closed upon them, had instructed him to open them.

I frankly told the Admiral that my position was very different from that of the English and French Ministers; that their treaties were made at a time when they were at war with the Chinese; and that if their provisions were violated, they might consider themselves thrown back into the war which had been terminated or suspended by the treaty; that the American treaty, on the contrary, had been made with a nation with whom we had never been at war, and that if any of its provisions were violated, the proper remedy must be judged of by our Government, to which I should refer the matter, but that I had been instructed by the President of the United States to go to Peking, and that I should go until stopped by a force which I could not overcome; that Commodore Tatnall and I would the next day cross the bank in the Toey-Wan and proceed as far as we could, or until we were fired upon.

The next morning, Friday, the 24th, Commodore Tatnall, with his Flag-Lieutenant, and I, with my brother, the interpreters and attaches of the Legation, went on board the Toey-Wan about 8 A. M., and proceeded towards the river. We passed at anchor outside the bank, the Cruiser, and the steam store-ship Hesper.

After passing the bank, we found at anchor, about a mile and a half from the mouth of the river, the gunboats heretofore mentioned as over the bank, and also the Coromandel, to which the Admiral's flag had been transferred, the Nimrod and Rover and the French gun-boat Nosogaray, making in all ten gun-boats and three small vessels, carrying about forty guns and six hundred men. Anchored with these vessels were three large junks, of which the English had taken possession, and upon which they had about seven hundred men intended as recruits for the vessels, and as a force with which at a proper time an attack by land was to be made upon the forts. We passed all these vessels on our way, determined not to be stopped except by actual force. Fortunately for us, we ran aground when within half a mile of the forts. This was not to be wondered at, as no officer on board the Toey-Wan had ever crossed the bank or bar.

At the time we grounded the tide was falling rapidly. The English Admiral immediately sent his flag-lieutenant in the Plover to say that he expected to see us fired upon at every moment, and that when the tide fell the boat would probably keel over. He tendered to Com. Tatnall the use of the Plover, requesting him to hoist the American ensign at the peak, and his own flag at the mizzen-mast. The Commodore declined to accept this kind offer, but said he would be glad of the services of the boat to pull him off. An effort to do this was made, but was unsuccessful, and the Plover left us and returned to the line which the Admiral was forming.

About 2 o'clock P. M. the flag-lieutenant of Com. Tatnall was sent on shore with the interpreters to inform them that I was on board the steamer on my way to Peking. The reply I received was that we could not go by that river—that there was no officer of any rank there—that those who were there could receive no communication of any kind whatever—indeed that there was no one there who could read or write—that they had heard that the Emperor had ordered the Governor-General to meet the Ministers at what they called the north entrance to the river, which they said was ten miles distant. They thought that the Governor-General would probably be there that day or the next.

About 8 o'clock in the evening, we fortunately succeeded in getting the steamer off. By that time the Admiral had formed a line extending from the junks to our position. The Commodore, fearing that a light moving about our boat during the night might be mistaken for some signal in the Admiral's squadron, ordered the steamer to drop below the line and anchor near the junks. About 12 o'clock we heard an explosion. This was the blowing up of the first barrier across the river, and it was followed by two guns from the forts. The rest of the night everything was quiet.

It was evident in the morning, from the position of the vessels, that the battle would be commenced some time during the day. All the vessels mentioned as over the bar were as near to the entrance of the river as they could get. It was ascertained that three barriers had been erected across the river, at the distance of twenty yards from each other. On the left bank of the river were three or four large forts, admirably built of mud, and connected with each other by shore batteries. At the mouth of the river was one very large fort, from which the heaviest guns were fired. On the right-hand side of the river were three forts, connected by shore batteries. Within these forts and batteries, it was afterwards ascertained that there must have been from twenty to twenty-five thousand men. At 2:45 P. M. the Starling, having the Admiral's flag flying, commenced ascending the river, followed by the Plover, the other vessels remaining at anchor. As soon as the Starling had passed the barrier blown up during the night, the forts commenced firing. All the vessels returned the fire, and the balls flew around like hail-stones. Before the firing had lasted half an hour, however, we could see from our vessels that the English were suffering far beyond their anticipations, and the Commodore said to me, "Those forts cannot be taken with the force they have." We could see the shot destroying the vessels, while the forts were scarcely injured by the small battery of the English. About 5 o'clock a young man came to us from the Admiral's ship, with blood upon his own brow—poor fellow, and looking wearied and exhausted. He told the Commodore that the Admiral was lying on the deck of his vessel, severely wounded; that his captain had had his head shot off, and he had but three men left capable of doing duty. The Admiral had sent for reinforcements to relieve him, but the wind and tide were so strong against the boats that it would be impossible, without the assistance of steam, to get them up in time to be of any use. He had had two boats shot away under him, and reached us in the third, bearing the request that the Commodore would tow up their boats. By this time the tide was falling very fast, and two of the gunboats had grounded just where we had been the day before, and were literally being shot to pieces. Com. Tatnall consulted with me on the application that had been made to him. It was a question not without difficulty. As neutrals we had no right to interfere or to render the smallest aid to either party. But could we be regarded strictly as neutrals? We were in company with the other Powers, not by our own choice. I had desired to avoid all complication with them, and to secure this end I had left Hong Kong so immediately after my arrival as to draw on myself the censure of one of the Hong Kong journals. The Chinese had themselves forced us into our present position, their Commissioners at Shanghai having insisted upon my waiting for the English and French Ministers, and coming with them. In consequence of this we had been incessantly receiving from them acts of courtesy and kindness. Now, should they be successful, we should profit by their success. In opening the road to Peking to their own Ministers, they would also open it to us. In view of all these reasons, I could not hesitate to say to Commodore Tatnall that while we had no right to fire a gun in their defence or to give them a man to aid in the attack, we ought to render the required assistance to relieve the Admiral from his position, and that accordingly his desire to tow up the boats received not only my assent, but my unqualified approbation, and was, indeed, in strict accordance with my own wishes. He then insisted that I should leave the steamer with my suite and go on board one of the junks, as he said a vessel towing up the English reinforcements was no place for the American Minister, when the British and French Ministers were ten miles off. Feeling the delicacy of my situation, and that there was force in what he said, yielded reluctantly to his wishes and went to the junk, but I could not long remain there, for while I felt that the most dignified position for me would have been on board the Powhatan, the Toey-Wan was my present home. By an accident the battle had been commenced while I was in her and over the bar, and she was going into danger with my full assent. I therefore determined to return to her, and availed myself of the first opportunity to do so, which was in the gig of Capt. Wills, one of the English officers. My brother and Messrs. Heard and Learsman, of my suite, returned with me. I think the Commodore thought me wrong as Minister, but was glad to have me on board with him. At all events, it made me share the responsibility with him, which I was more than anxious to do; and while it may be said that strict neutrality was his duty, he did more that day to illustrate the gallantry of the American Navy in the eyes of the world than twenty successful engagements would have done. As soon as he heard of the Admiral's position, he went in his open barge, through one of the hottest fires that fell from the forts, alongside of the Admiral's ship, which was and had been the target of all the forts, not to assist him in the fight —not to win glory by a victory—but to give his sympathy to a wounded brother officer, whom he saw about to suffer a most mortifying and unexpected defeat. I regret to say that his coxswain was killed by his side, just as he reached the Admiral's vessel, by a ball that struck the boat with so much force as to throw him and Lieut. Trenchard out of their seats For a little while the Lieutenant was stunned, but neither of them was hurt.

Between 6 and 7 P. M., the Commodore having rendered all the assistance in his power, the Toey-Wan came to anchor between the French gun-boa and the Coromandel. There the shot flew thick and fast, and finding ourselves directly in the line of the fire, the Commodore ordered the position of the steamer changed, and we moved about a hundred yards, after having been there about two hours, during which time a ball passed under the awning, between it and the deck, within five feet of the spot where Capt. Pearson and I were standing, watching the landing of the troops for the attack.

This was the most terrific sight of the whole battle. As the boats approached, the forts and all the water batteries opened a most deadly fire, and we could see the men fall in the boats. They moved steadily on to the landing-place, where, as they touched the shore, the fire again opened upon them, and the poor fellows were seen to fall in crowds. It is estimated that of the 600 composing the storming party, 100 at least had fallen before they had reached the shore. There the most terrible fate awaited the survivors. Landing, at the approach of night, upon a shore of which they were entirely ignorant, at low water, but with a fast-rising tide, they soon found that they were separated from the forts—first, by mud and water wais deep; second, by a ditch filled with water, which no man could cross without swimming; and, third, by another ditch filled with sharp iron spikes. The 500 survivors soon saw that there was no safety but in retreat. One of the officers told me that by the time they had crossed the first ditch, there was not a weapon that would fire, so wet had become their ammunition. Their retreat was as fatal as their landing. The Chinese sent up fire-rockets, and, by their light, shot down the men, who could not return the fire. About 11 o'clock, P. M., the survivors, with such of their wounded companions as they could assist, began returning to the ships. From that time till daylight, officers and men were coming aboard the Toey-Wan, where they were furnished with refreshments and provided with a resting-place. As you may imagine, we did not sleep much that night. When the day dawned, the portion of the squadron engaged in the fight was a perfect wreck. Random shots had been kept up during the night, and many of them had taken effect. Less than half of the land force had escaped unhurt. It is estimated that three hundred of them had been killed. On board the ships eight officers had been killed and twenty-three wounded. The number of the men has not yet been ascertained. All the vessels were more or less disabled, and three of the gun-boats—the Lee, the Plover and the Kestrel—were entirely destroyed. The Cormorant, the tender of the flag-ship, was found to be so disabled that it was impossible to remove her. Com. Tatnall visited the Admiral in the morning and tendered his services to do all in his power for the wounded, or to assist him with his disabled vessels. They requested that he would take the wounded men over the bar to the vessels lying outside. About 9½ o'clock, as many as could be placed in two large launches were brought to the stern of our steamer, and we towed them out, taking these sad mementoes with the first tidings of the fight to the French and English Ministers. The Admiral, though severely wounded, still remains about the forts, attempting to destroy the four vessels that could not be removed, to prevent their falling into the hands of the Chinese. I have no doubt he will succeed, though the forts have been incessantly firing upon them. It is now Thursday, and the firing still continues.

As soon as the first gun was fired, I felt that if the English were unsuccessful, I could have little hope of further negotiation with the Chinese; yet, as I would do everything in my power for the fulfillment of my mission, I determined to make the effort, and as soon as possible I sent a letter to the Governor-General of this province, who was said to be somewhere on the coast about ten miles from the forts. Yesterday I dispatched my brother, with the interpreters, in search of the place and the man. They left this anchorage in the Toey-wan about 11 A. M., carrying my letter, in which I informed the Governor-General that I was here under the treaty, and by the invitation of the Commissioners at Shanghai; that I was charged with an autograph letter from the President of the United States to His Majesty the Emperor, and asked him to provide me with means of conveyance to Peking. The Toey-wan returned at 8 P. M., and my brother tells me that after going northwest along the coast, about ten miles from this anchorage, they discovered an inlet near a village which was strongly fortified. The Toey-wan could not approach nearer than four miles in consequence of the shallowness of the water. My brother, Mr. Martin, the interpreter, and Mr. Merchant, a midshipman, went ashore in the boat of the Toey-wan. At the approach of the boat the villagers began to fly. They succeeded, however, in holding communication with two of the Chinese, who stated that the Governor-General had gone over to the forts at the mouth of the Pei-ho, and said they would deliver the letter to him. These men said they had never heard of the United States of America, and warned the party that they had better return to their boat, as a large body of cavalry had been sent for, who were Tartar soldiers, and recognized no distinctions among foreign barbarians. While they were conversing with the Chinese a large body of cavalry, well mounted, actually appeared in sight, rapidly advancing towards them, and, as they returned to their boat, followed them to the water's edge.

GENERAL MARKETS.

NEW-YORK, Monday, Oct. 10, 1859—6 P. M.

The reported receipts of the principal kinds of Produce since our last have been 39 bbls. Ashes, 37,918 bbls. Flour, 400 bbls. Corn Meal, 13,932 bushels Wheat, 670 bushels Corn, 276 bushels Rye, 1,450 bushels Barley, 14,631 bushels Oats, 785 pkgs. Provisions, and 290 bbls. Whisky.

COTTON—Has been quiet, to-day. Prices remain as last noticed. Sales 300 bales.

FLOUR AND MEAL—The market has been somewhat unsettled, to-day, for State and Western Flour. The receipts have been very large, but the report of a break in the Erie Canal has had the effect of counteracting the influence of the heavy arrivals. State brands have been in lively request, and for extra, decidedly better prices have been obtained. The demand for Western has mainly run on low qualities, and has not been active for even these, though toward the close the inquiry is increasing—with the confidence of sellers. The better descriptions of Flour, generally, have been only moderately sought after, yet they have been held firmly. The principal purchases, to-day, have been made by regular Eastern and local buyers. We hear of sales of 12,800 bushels, including superfine State at $4 50@$4 60, chiefly at $4 55; extra State at $4 75@$4 85, mainly at $4 75@$4 80; superfine Wisconsin, Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio, at $4 50@$4 70; extra Wisconsin, at $4 75@$6; extra Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan, at $4 80@$6 25; very inferior extra Ohio, at $5@$5 25; round hoop extra Ohio, shipping brands, at $5 40@$5 60 ℔ bbl.

Unsound Flour	$3 20	@$4 30
Superfine State	4 50	@ 4 60
Extra State	4 75	@ 4 85
Superfine Western	4 50	@ 4 70
Extra Wisconsin	4 75	@ 6 00
Extra Illinois, Indiana and Michigan	4 80	@ 6 25
Inferior Extra Ohio	5 00	@ 5 25
Extra Ohio, round hoop, shipping brds.	5 40	@ 5 60
Extra Ohio, trade brands	5 65	@ 6 75
Fancy Genesee	5 00	@ 5 15
Extra Genesee	5 35	@ 7 25
Inferior to choice Extra Missouri	5 25	@ 8 50
Extra Kentucky and Tennessee	5 40	@ 9 00

Southern Flour is in good demand, at rising prices. Sales have been reported, since our last, of 2,200 bbls., in lots, at $5 25@$5 60 for poor to good superfine Alexandria, Baltimore, Brandywine, &c., and $5 65@$7 25 for fancy to choice extra brands ℔ bbl. Canadian has been purchased to the extent of 250 bbls. extra, in lots, chiefly at $5 20@$6 40 ℔ bbl. Rye Flour is selling, in lots, at $3 60@$4 30 for fine and superfine, ℔ bbl. Corn Meal is in fair demand at $4 10 for Jersey and Pennsylvania, and $4 30@$4 35 for Brandywine, ℔ bbl.; Puncheons of Brandywine are now quoted at $20 50 each.

GRAIN—Wheat has been more sought after to-day and prices have improved. The report of a break in the Canal has tended to increase the demand; sales have been reported of 27,500 bushels, including fair white Canada, chiefly at $1 23; No. 1 Milwaukee club at $1 05; prime white Kentucky at $1 45, ordinary white Southern at $1 30, and good red do., at $1 20 ℔ bush. Corn is quite scarce and is dearer. The demand is restricted, however, owing to the difficulty of procuring desirable lots, and the high prices asked for such. Sales have been confined to 16,500 bushels, at 98c. for new mixed Western, and about $1 for yellow Southern, ℔ bushel. Rye is in light supply and is in request at firmer prices. Sales 4,000 bushels at 86c.@88c. ℔ bushel. Barley is heavy and drooping; sales 1,000 bushels poor State, at 75c., and 800 bushels Canada East, at 77c., ℔ bushel. Oats are salable and buoyant, including Canada, at 44½c.@45½c.; Western, at 44c.@45c.; and State, at 43c.@45c. ℔ bushel.

PROVISIONS—Pork has been in moderate request, and sales have been reported of 1,500 bbls., in lots, at $15 56¼@$15 62½, chiefly at $15 62½ for Mess, and $10 62½@$10 65 for Prime, ℔ bbl., here, and $10 50 for do., deliverable, sellers' option, to Dec. 1.; Cut Meats are in demand, including Hams at 9½c.@9¾c., and Shoulders at 8c. ℔ ℔. Bacon rules dull and nominal. Lard is unaltered; sales to-day, 420 tcs. and bbls. fair to choice, at 11¼c.@11⅝c. ℔ ℔. Beef is more active; sales 400 bbls., in lots, at $6@$8 50 for repacked Western Mess; $9@$10 50 for fair to choice extra do.; $5@$5 50 for Country Mess, and $4@$4 50 for do. Prime, ℔ bbl. Beef Hams, $13@$17 ℔ bbl. Butter continues in request at 15c.@21c. for State; 12½c.@16½c. for Ohio, ℔ ℔. Cheese is selling, in lots, at from 7½c.@10c. ℔ ℔.

PRINTING CLOTHS.—In Providence sales have been made of 34,700 pieces, including, according to the Providence Journal, 2,000 pieces 64x64, private terms, 4,200 pieces 64x64 5¼c.; 3,000 pieces 64x64 5⅜c., 8,000 pieces 64x63 5⅜c.; 3,000 pieces 60x64 5⅛c.; 2,500 pieces 60x64 5⅛c.; 12,000 pieces 60x60 5⅛c.

SUGARS—Have been in good demand, and sales have been made, to-day, of 1,280 hhds. Cuba, chiefly at 6¼c.@7c.; and 30 hhds. New-Orleans at 6⅞c. ℔ ℔.

WHISKY—Sales, 400 bbls., in lots, at 28¼c.@28½c. ℔ gallon.

FREIGHTS—For Liverpool, there were engaged 165 bales Cotton, by steamer, at ¼d.@9-32d. ℔ ℔.; also, $1,800 bbls. Resin at 2s. For London, 400 bbls. Resin at 2s. 9d. ℔ 280 ℔s.

MUSICAL.

THE DRIGGS PATENT PIANO-FORTE Are all of the full scale of 7-octave. The most experienced workmen, the greatest perfection of mechanical skill, and the best seasoned materials are employed in their manufacture.

They are constructed on a solid iron frame or bedplate, entirely separate from the case, thus relieving the case, sound-boards and all the wood-work from the strain of the strings, making them much more solid and enduring. There are two sounding boards, arranged as those of a violin, giving three times the amount of vibrating surface found in any other piano; which, being free from the strain of the strings, becomes more sonorous and pure on their vibrations as the piano becomes older. Their construction is the most simple and scientific, and they are the most enduring and full-toned pianos ever made. Call and see them, at WM. HALL & SON'S,

HOTELS.

FIFTH-AVENUE HOTEL,
ON 5TH-AV.,
AT THE INTERSECTION OF BROADWAY, OPPOSITE MADISON-SQUARE, NEW-YORK.

TO BE OPENED AUG. 23, 1859.

This location is the most desirable of any in this great Metropolis, being the most healthy, delightful, and central in the City, and very near and convenient to the Hudson River and Boston Railroad dépôts.

The entire arrangements of the establishment are the result of mature study and experience, and render it the most comfortable and home-like hotel in the world.

All the improvements that comfort and convenience have suggested have been introduced.

Every precaution has been taken, during construction, to secure the positive safety of guests from the dangers of conflagration. Subdivision double brick walls extend from the rock foundation to the roof. All of the floors are double, and are separated by a layer of cement, making the entire structure fireproof.

Among other important improvements, in addition to the usual stairways, a vertical railway is nearly completed to convey guests from the first to upper floors, upon a plan which admits of no possibility of accident.

Lofty, spacious and continuous corridors, forming a promenade of eight hundred feet upon each of the six stories, give light and air, in the highest degree, to every apartment.

A liberal space has been appropriated to public drawing-rooms and parlors, connecting which and the dining-rooms there is a grand promenade hall. Suites of spacious parlors, chambers and dressing-rooms, with all the modern conveniences, have been especially designed for the comfort of families, traveling parties and single gentlemen.

An exchange, containing the journals of the day, and all the conveniences for commercial intercourse and business, has been added to the many other features of the Hotel, and there is a telegraph office connecting with all parts of the country.

Billiard and chess rooms of the most approved style and appointments, are provided for the use of guests and the public.

The furniture, and every article of use in the establishment has been expressly designed and manufactured for the FIFTH-AVENUE HOTEL.

All communications for apartments, or upon any business connected with the house, please direct to "FIFTH-AVENUE HOTEL," in order to insure immediate attention.

The entire organization of this Hotel has been under the direction of Mr. PARAN STEVENS, Proprietor of Revere and Tremont Houses in Boston, and Battle and Point Clear Houses in Mobile, and will be conducted by
Your obedient servants,
HITCHCOCK, DARLING & CO.

INSURANCE.

FIRE INSURANCE.—AN ADVERTISEMENT appeared in the Times of yesterday intended to prejudice public opinion in relation to a suit about to be tried between Horstmann Brothers and Allien, and sixteen insurance companies, mostly of this City, who unanimously resolved to resist the claim of that firm. Those companies, all of whom have a fair standing in this community, have no intention to enter into the merits of the controversy, which they deem the Courts fully competent to decide, but now content themselves with branding this infamous attempt to pervert the course of justice with the reprobation it is sure to meet from all honorable men.

FINANCIAL.

BANK-NOTE ENGRAVING.

AMERICAN
BANK-NOTE COMPANY.

New-York, Sept. 1, 1858.

The business of this Company in New-York having been concentrated in the MERCHANTS' EXCHANGE, the several firm agencies of RAWDON, WRIGHT, HATCH & EDSON, TOPPAN, CARPENTER & CO., DANFORTH, PERKINS & CO., BALD, COUSLAND & CO., JOCELYN, DRAPER, WELSH & CO., and WELLSTOOD, HAY & WHITING, are discontinued, and all communications may hereafter be addressed to the Secretary.

This Company is now prepared to afford to BANKING INSTITUTIONS and THE PUBLIC, the ADVANTAGES CONTEMPLATED IN ITS FORMATION, both as it regards the SUPERIORITY OF THEIR WORK and the provisions made for the safety of the trust confided to their care, and they respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage heretofore extended to them under their separate Firm organizations.

FOUNDRY AND FORGING ESTABLISHMENT.—The valuable establishment lately occupied by Messrs. Passavant, Archer & Co., on the north side of 28th-st., about 300 feet west of 10th-av., will be sold or leased on favorable terms, and possession can be had immediately. The premises consist of six lots of ground, four of which are held on lease expiring in May, 1868, at $200 per annum ground rent, with privilege of two renewals of twenty-one years each, and usual stipulations for improvements if not renewed. The other two lots (occupied by sheds, &c.) are held on yearly lease. The improvements on the four lots are a large brick forge and machine shop, three stories high, large cupola furnace with foundry and molding shops, steam engine, shafting and all other machinery necessary for an extensive business. There is also the entire stock of the late occupants of patterns, flasks and all usual tools and implements ready for immediate commencement of business. The premises will be leased at an annual rent, or the leasehold right sold with all the stock of patterns, flasks, tools and implements. The premises may be viewed at any time, and for further information, inventory of materials, &c., apply to DELAPIERRE & LOCKWOOD, No. 45 Cliff-st.

FOR SALE—MOST VALUABLE BROADWAY property, in fee simple, a valuable lot just above Houston-st., 28 feet by 200 feet. NEWS OF THE DAY.

The news brought by the Indian to Quebec is of striking interest. There is every reason to apprehend, from the character of the advices received from China, that although Mr. WARD, the American Minister, had succeeded in effecting his entrance into Peking, he has there been subjected to confinement. Such, at least, is the intelligence forwarded from St. Petersburgh, and if the accounts from the ordinary sources bear no testimony to the point, we cannot forget that our earliest and most reliable dispatches have heretofore been brought from Peking by the Russian Couriers—dispatches uniformly confirmed by the development of events. It is also stated that since the disaster at the Takoo forts, the French and English squadrons had remained inactive. From Japan word comes that the temporal Emperor is disposed to evade or disallow the recent treaties with the Christian powers; exhibiting his new policy in an order confining foreigners to an island ten miles distant from the capital. The British Vice-Consul had protested and suspended trade. The general news from Europe is not of leading importance. The Conference at Zurich was proceeding without known results. The conviction was universal that a Congress must meet forthwith, and political busybodies were engaged in designating the delegates from the several Powers. In the meantime, the King of Sardinia had given an audience to the deputies of the Roman Legations, replying to their address in terms not very materially differing from those vouchsafed to the delegations from Tuscany and the Duchies. From England, we learn that the alterations of the Great Eastern, having been assigned to the Superintendent of the Board of Trade, were proceeding so slowly as to discourage the hope of her departure at the day fixed in the Company's announcement.

A later arrival from Liberia announces that President BENSON had returned from the seaward settlements without succeeding in pacifying the discontented chiefs. War, it was feared, would necessarily result. Much dissatisfaction was felt at Monrovia at the treatment received at New-York by the brig E. N. Roye; but it was not thought probable that war with the American Government and with the insubordinate chiefs of the eastern coast would be declared at the same moment.

On the 28th of September, Brownsville, Texas, was attacked by a party of guerillas, two hundred strong, who killed five of the citizens and broke open the jail, and freed all the prisoners. While they were committing further depredations Gen. CARAVAJAL arrived from Matamoras, and persuaded the attacking party to desist. They were headed by CARTINAS, who was seeking revenge, as he alleged, for injuries which he had received at the hands of the Brownsville authorities. The people of the city put no faith in the promises which these guerillas gave the Mexicans to desist from further outrage, and fled to Matamoras, while expresses were dispatched to San Antonio for troops.

The English cricketers are giving the Philadelphians an opportunity of witnessing their skill. A match was begun yesterday afternoon between them and a United States twenty-two, the latter taking the first innings. When play was discontinued they had made 41 runs, with four wickets down. As election occurs to-day in Pennsylvania, the game is postponed until to-morrow.

A report of a break in the Erie Canal at Schenectady had the effect of increasing the demand for Flour and Wheat, prices of which partially advanced. Corn was scarce, and in request at higher rates. The transactions in Provisions were firm at essentially unaltered figures. Coffee, Cotton, Metals, Rice, Molasses and Tallow were quiet. Sugars were pretty actively inquired for at buoyant prices. A moderate demand prevailed for Naval Stores. Fish Oils attracted considerable attention. The Freight engagements were very limited.

The Tammany Hall Primaries were held last evening in all the wards, with but little disturbance or excitement. The New-York branch of the Democracy nominated for Assembly from the Seventh District, SAMUEL T. WEBSTER. The Second Assembly District Convention of the same party again adjourned without making a nomination, and the Convention for the Fifth District had not adjourned at a late hour.

The Board of Aldermen, last evening, disposed of a great many papers, but none of special importance. The Street Commissioner transmitted his quarterly report, exhibiting the amount of requisitions drawn by him upon the Comptroller for the last three months—$343,872 78—and the transactions for the same period of the several bureaux of the Department. It was directed that it be printed. Another communication from the same officer, asking for a further appropriation of $20,000 for "fuel, furniture, lighting, cleaning and supplies to Corporation offices," the original appropriation of $25,000 being exhausted, was referred, and so were a number of reports and documents of minor interest. The resolution directing the Croton Board to take up the Russ pavement on Broadway, between Reade and Duane streets, was adopted. In the Board of Councilmen resolutions were adopted inviting the owners and officers of the Great Eastern to visit this port. It was directed that the Third-avenue should be extended to the Harlem River its full width of one hundred feet, and that 4,500 additional copies of the decisions made by the different Counsel to the Corporation, during the last ten years, should be printed. A communication was received from the Street Commissioner, relative to repairs to the Fifteenth Ward Station-house. As the contracts were not satisfactory to the Board, the documents were returned to the bureau from which they came.

Before the Committee on Railroads of the Board of Aldermen, which met at 2 P. M., a number of property owners appeared to oppose the petition of incorporators of the Westchester County Railroad Company for permission to lay rails through certain streets of the City. The Committee took no final action, and will presently hold another meeting for the consideration of the subject.

The action of assault and battery brought by Mr. THOMAS ASTEN against ex-Councilman WILD, was tried yesterday before Justice ROOSEVELT in the Supreme Court, and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff of $100.

At a meeting of the Brooklyn Common Council, held last evening, a resolution attached to a report of the Water and Drainage Committee, sustaining the action of the Comptroller in his refusal to issue bonds on the drafts of the Water Commissioners under the act, passed April 16 last, was adopted. The report of the Committee, which declares that act unconstitutional, was supported by the written opinions of Messrs. A. M'CUE, DANIEL LORD, J. K. PORTER, A. J. PARKER and JOHN GREENWOOD. An alternative mandamus has been obtained by the Commissioners, requiring the Comptroller to show cause before Mr. Justice LOTT on Saturday next, why he refuses to accept the drafts under the act of 1859. The report of the Committee, except the resolution mentioned, was laid on the table, ordered printed and made the special order for next Monday evening.

The monthly prayer meeting of the congregation of the Church of the Puritans, having for its object the agitation of Southern Slavery, and a concert of prayer for its overthrow, was held last evening. Dr. CHEEVER reviewed the late action upon the subject of the American Board of Foreign Missions at its meeting in Philadelphia last week. Addresses were also made by the Rev. Mr. THOMPSON, for fifteen years a missionary to the negroes in Jamaica, West Indies, and by the Rev. JOHN J. FEE, of Kentucky.

The corner-stone of the Madison-avenue Baptist Church, at the corner of Thirty-first-street, was laid with appropriate ceremonies yesterday afternoon. The Rev. Dr. HAGUE, the pastor of the Church; Dr. THOMPSON, of the Tabernacle Congregational Church; Dr. DOWLING and others took part in the exercises.

The Stock Market yesterday was firmer in tone, with a pretty general advance of 1 ⅌ cent. on Saturday's prices. The market for money quite steady, and both Discounts and Loans, at call, were easy, at 6@7 ⅌ cent. The Exchange on England is 110 ⅌ cent. The Bank return shows a further reduction in Loans of nearly a million of dollars, and a small increase on the Specie line. The New-York and Erie election takes place this day, and a ticket for the New Board was distributed yesterday, embracing the two English delegates now in this City, whose plan for the reorganization and maintenance at original value of the Bonds and Stock of the Company, was published in our last paper.

Our Minister in China.

The extraordinary report which reaches us to-day from St. Petersburg, to the effect that the American Minister, after reaching Peking, had been seized and confined by the Celestial authorities, gives a special interest to a letter which we elsewhere publish from Mr. WARD himself, in regard to his participation in the battle of Tien-tsin. It is by no means improbable that information conveyed to Peking of the part played by the American flag in that conflict may have immediately moved the Chinese Government to this step; but the readers of the TIMES will remember that we have never ceased to express our firm conviction that enough had never yet been done, nor in the right way, to bring the Celestial authorities to a just recognition of their relations with the rest of mankind. And we cannot, therefore, feel absolutely surprised by such a report as now reaches us from Russia, although we most sincerely hope that it may prove to be an exaggeration, at least, if not an absolute invention of the St. Petersburg telegraphers. It is but fair, however, to say that the reputation of the Russian news from China is in the main and deservedly good, while in this instance so much of the story as relates to Mr. WARD's arrival at Peking comes confirmed to us by way of Hong-Kong.

The greatest anxiety will naturally be excited for the fate of our Envoy; and we trust the Administration will lose not an instant in commencing its preparations for dispatching to the Chinese waters a force worthy of our name and rank among nations should this intelligence be unfortunately confirmed. A very short time will settle this question, but a very short time will not put us in a position to take the steps which will become imperative upon us, should it indeed be true that such an outrage has been inflicted upon the American representative. As we have shown ourselves the most forbearing of the Great Powers in our dealings with China, while forbearance seemed both possible and right, so must we approve ourselves not the least energetic and formidable should our honor and our interest be thus engaged to a great Oriental war. We have submitted for years to see our commerce in China exist under the protection of the British flag, but we can hardly be prepared to leave the rescue of our Envoy and the vindication of our national honor to the arms of VICTORIA and NAPOLEON.

The Mayor's Veto-Power.

As the period for Mayor TIEMANN's release from official duty is drawing near, and as that officer does not covet a renomination to his present post, there is every prospect that an unbiased judgment will soon be formed by the public as to the character and extent of his services. It is claimed by the friends of the present Mayor that the records of his administration will furnish a full and consistent volume of precedents, embracing almost every case which can hereafter be submitted for the action of our civic Chief Magistrates. The exercise of the veto-power during the past twenty months has, certainly, been firm and undeviating, the same principles being applied to every case, irrespective of party or personal pressure; and, though many obnoxious measures have been forced through the Common Council in spite of, or over the Mayor's veto, by a three-fourths vote, still the messages of protest remain on record, and will form valuable authorities for the guidance or assurance of future Mayors. In this relation, and with a view to the next election, it would be interesting to collect all the measures vetoed by the Mayor, and then make a semi-political, semi-social analysis of the Common Council votes on each particular case. This might give us some insight with regard to the alleged combination, sometimes called the "ring," and at other times the "pool," of which so much is heard in all well-informed municipal circles.

Last night Mayor TIEMANN, in pursuance of the law and of precedents already established, vetoed two resolutions of the Common Council remitting assessments due from the Church of St. Andrew, in Duane-street, and the Colored Orphans' Asylum on Fifth-avenue. In the first case St. Andrew's Church was awarded by the Commissioners for opening Duane-street, a very exorbitant price, $6,800, for a few feet of ground taken by the City; and the Common Council next came in with a resolution remitting the sum of $6,740, assessed upon the Church, for the benefit which it receives from the improvement. The assessment on the Colored Orphan's Asylum, the remission of which has also been vetoed by the Mayor, amounted to $2,500, a portion of this being for the Central Park and the remainder for regulating and sewering Fifth-avenue, just in front of the Asylum. The Common Council has clearly no right to throw these additional burdens of taxation on the City, for the benefit of private corporations; and as the Courts have control of the matter of assessments, we trust that the positions taken by Mayor TIEMANN, in these and similar cases, will be sustained. The opinion of the Corporation Counsel is on record, in a letter to the Comptroller, showing that the law under which assessments are levied gives no discretion to the Common Council either to increase, decrease or remit any payments due in this manner. The action of the Commissioners of Assessment in each case of street-opening or improvement must be considered final.

Similar questions to those presented and vetoed last night arose in regard to the Baptist Church of Sixteenth-street, the Methodist Episcopal Church of Ninth-street, the German Methodist Church of Fortieth-street, and several other churches of different persuasions throughout the City. In every case the Mayor, standing on the law, vetoed the proposed remissions on the ground of having no legal power to sign them; at the same time suggesting to the Common Council, that a resolution to donate a specific amount to a specific object would be considered on the ground of its merits. Whether in regard to St. Andrew's Church and the Colored Orphans' Asylum, the Common Council will attempt to override the Mayor's veto by a three-fourths vote remains yet to be seen. It is possible that some such step may be attempted, and then the whole principle at issue will be brought before the Courts for final decision. It is very important to have the religious charities of the Common Council regulated by some settled principles of law; and very unjust that the whole City should be taxed for the benefits conferred on the property of any particular congregation.

National Gymnastics.

The cricket match at Hoboken and the interest it has excited, seems to have led some people to the conclusion that a new era is about to be inaugurated, that every doctor, lawyer, editor and merchant in the country will henceforward devote himself to the bat and ball, and present himself to the admiring gaze of his friends with a pair of rosy cheeks and a stomach of leather; that dyspepsia will become an historical disease like the leprosy, and the vendors of bitters be obliged to call meetings of their creditors and wind up their affairs. We share the interest with which everybody has regarded the brilliant introduction of the noble game amongst us by the "Eleven" at Hoboken, and we have no doubt it will henceforward be oftener resorted to as a means of recreation than ever it has been before; but we are sorry we cannot share the glorious sanitary previsions with which so many people's minds are now filled.

That a good deal of progress towards greater health has been made within the last few years nobody can deny. Active exercise has become a little more fashionable amongst both sexes. Ladies walk more, and wear thicker boots for that purpose. Last Winter they skated a great deal, and this Winter we hope will skate a good deal more; and we do not doubt that these exercises, as well as riding, rowing, and bowling, will henceforward become every year more general. The men, too, have been giving their digestions a slight fillip, by frequenting gymnasiums a little, going to the Adirondack a little, fishing a little, hunting a little, bowling nine pins a little. Some few will now play cricket a little. But we honestly confess we still feel somewhat despondent about the prospects of "exercise," because we feel that to become general, useful, destructive of dyspepsia, consumption and hypochondria, and all the ills that follow in their train, it must be sought and obtained for its own sake, and with a hearty relish and enjoyment of it, not resorted to as part of a course of medicine, and swallowed with wry faces, and fled from at the earliest possible moment. To give it its proper position in the popular estimation in America, our men of sedentary habits must undergo a little moral change. As long as business occupies their minds as intensely and earnestly as it does now, they will never get any lasting good either from cricket or anything else, because they will never take up bat or ball with thorough; as long as we go off to the country, and mount our horses, and seize our rifles with doubts, and reluctance, and misgivings, with anxieties innumerable about bills payable and bills receivable, and cases and points weighing us down, and seize the first decent opportunity of hurrying back to town, and "buckling down," we might as well submit to our dyspepsia without a struggle.

Exercise, like everything else which involves effort, to be thoroughly enjoyed, and to be thoroughly profitable, must be cultivated steadily, year after year. As long as we rush about, now and then, when there happens to be "a rage" in cricket, just as there is a rage in chess, and a rage in base ball, and a rage in rope-walking, or in obedience to a doctor's orders, as a last resource, bitters and tonic failing, our exercise will be painful, laborious and a bore. We must take exercise steadily, boldly, and because we like it; take a holiday now and then all the year round, and not be ashamed of it, if we wish to love cricket, or horseback riding, or rowing. At present we skulk and sneak to our out-door amusements. The old lawyer and old merchant sit down under their dyspepsia, and neuralgia, and gout, and gravel, and liver complaint, just as one submits to a wet day. They have had them all their lives, and despair of cure, and find distraction in intense devotion to business. The young lawyer and young merchant, who takes them as his patterns, tries to walk in their footsteps. He scorns vacation, sticks to his noonday pie and desk. If he goes out of town for a week in Summer, he tries to hide it, and make believe he is only away for a day and will be back to-morrow. Rude health he at last begins to think discreditable, as it indicates laxity of devotion to business, he fears. After a few years, he is no longer able to take any exercise, and leisure brings no enjoyment. Flabby muscles and a used-up stomach make motion either on foot or on horseback disagreeable, and long absorption in business renders it impossible for the mind to tear itself away from it. A final break down probably sends him to Europe for two years, if he can afford it, when it is too late for thorough restoration, and so the years drag on.

Now, if we want to make outdoor sports racy of the soil, to become good cricketers and bid defiance to British deportations, to become bold riders, ardent hunters, and get through life without being dependent for all our energies on our high strung nerves alone, we must begin by making it reputable to amuse one's self, by exalting health above business in the public estimation, instead of keeping it subordinate to it. A young man must be able to look his friends in the face and say—"I'm going for a day's cricketing or fishing, and I'm not ashamed of it;" and his friends must learn to feel, on hearing the announcement, that he is a lucky dog, and not that he is a hopeless vagabond.

We are always talking about English health and English devotion to outdoor sports, but we totally forget how the English acquire and keep these habits which we admire so much. In the first place they have a large idle aristocracy who have made manly sports fashionable and customary, and their influence is felt through every class and profession. The English Courts rise in June, and "the long vacation" follows. The lawyers rush out of town, and are not seen again until October. None of them ever thinks of confining himself to a miserable fortnight in August. Every business man who can possibly get away follows their example, and glories in it. Nobody is ashamed of going to the moor, and blazing away for two months, or "going on a tramp" for the same period to the Highlands or Switzerland. It is "the thing" which all who can are sure to do, and all who can't would fain do if they could. Health is fashionable; and therefore health-getting, because it is a habit, is pleasant. Instead of trying to make believe that they are in town all Autumn, they try to make believe that they have been out of town—that instead of working they have been "on the moors," or in Norway. This we admit is "snobbish," but it produces its effect. They get fond of exercise, and rush to it whenever an opening offers.

The Central Park will bring cricket to our doors. Five cents, and half an hour, will bring it, and divers other sports, within reach of every man in New-York. If we do not cultivate them enough to get a love for active exertion, it will be our own fault. But we must not forget that exercise and health, like law, or physic, or dry goods, must be pursued assiduously to be really won and enjoyed. They won't reveal their charms to every broken-down fellow who comes hobbling along and tries to set himself up by two or three days' worship at their shrine. Hard muscles, capacious lungs, and the vigorous digestion which carry a man through the Winter's toil, can only be acquired by steady devotion every week of Summer and Fall to laborious exercise in the open air.

Operatic Matters.

It is not, we trust, too boastful to say that New-York is the American parent of Italian Opera, which at the best is but a rickety imp, always tumbling down and getting into mischief. The triumph of creating such an offspring is not absolute. Still, as something of our own, we nurse it and pet it affectionately, believing that one of these days it will more than reward our anxiety and care. Knowing, as we do, the weaknesses of our child—conscious as we are, too, of the shaky condition of its knees, (owing to which, indeed, it has been found impossible, by the most skillful of operatic doctors, to establish it on a firm basis,) and of the exaggerated bulk and softness of its head—we may be excused for experiencing some degree of nervous apprehension when it is sent from us to pursue its fortunes in a comparatively strange and stony-hearted city. Boston, we take it for granted, is stony-hearted in all that relates to art. Time was, and that not long ago, when the Athenian Juggernaut of criticism seemed to take a savage pleasure in crunching our child beneath its wheels. Never was a brat more battered than this poor weakling when it first fell into the hands of the good Mrs. Brown, of the East. Shorn of everything that made it interesting to the multitude, we had once more to nurse it into comeliness only that it might return to the cruel games of the Trimontane gladiators, and there be torn to pieces afresh. Eels, we are informed, acquire an appetite for being skinned; the exercise, at first attended with some inconvenience, becomes, in the end, exhilarating and convivial. Mr. ULLMAN, however, the responsible guardian of Italian opera, and rhetorically considered an eel of the first magnitude, did not take the joke in the way it was meant. He objected to being skinned, and avowed, with all proper solemnity, that Boston and Italian opera should thenceforth and forever be strangers. Having registered this vow, it was nothing but reasonable that he should go there the next season. The Athenians, in the meantime, were mollified; the equinoctial vigor of their wrath expended itself on some other "show," and Mr. ULLMAN was heard to say, when visibly agitated, that Boston was not a bad place after all.

It is a natural, if not a providential, thing that we derive a large proportion of our statistical knowledge from this same Bay State capital. With a disposition for inquiry which has become world-famous, our cousins there get at things more readily than other people. The advent of a new hand-organ in the streets suggests a series of calculations involving the original cost of the instrument, its probable receipts, and the number of turns that might be economised, if those receipts were doubled by a Yankee notion. It is but just to say that these things are usually ascertained beyond the shadow of a doubt, and passing into the current literature of the day become matters of pleasing comment. With a more favorable opportunity the genius of the people displays itself to greater advantage. On a recent occasion a Boston cotemporary, goaded by curiosity at the enterprise of Messrs. ULLMAN and STRAKOSCH, seems to have made a minute investigation of their pay-sheet. He found that the opera costs $30,000 per month; that the salaries range from $2,500 to $400 per month, and that the higher the voice the higher the pay. According to the same authority, there is a first-violinist who receives $50 per week, and a "flutist" who gets the same amount. Why on earth do these people come back to New-York, when they get paid so much better in Boston?

For they are coming back, and that very speedily. The rulers of the Academy publish their grand programme to-day, in the most solemn diplomatic style, announcing a confederation between those ancient rivals, ULLMAN and STRAKOSCH, and the consequent "consolidation of the opera in America." Prosit! is the greeting we return to this important proclamation. The new régime is wise in at least one direction, for it has thrown off the depressing allegiance paid so long by our American opera-houses to the opera-houses of London and Paris. The times are ripe, think Messrs. ULLMAN & STRAKOSCH, for an operatic declaration of independence, and the New-York Academy of Music may make reputations now as well as take them ready made. That the musical public of New-York will answer the appeal thus made to their self-respect and their critical courage, we have no manner of doubt. The name of the young prima-donna who will first invoke our suffrages on Monday evening next (SPERANZA) is a name of good omen; and if all these fresh voices and unexhausted talents have indeed the vitality claimed for them, the Ullman-Strakosch dynasty will establish itself beyond the chances of revolution.

A SHABBY TRICK.—We cannot help calling attention to the shabby behavior of the Fillibusters who were captured by the United States Marshal in the Mississippi. It appears they were duly arrested, and brought in custody up the river, and placed in confinement in a barracks a little way below New-Orleans. If so far everything was satisfactory, and if they had only stayed where they were put, we feel convinced the law would have been duly vindicated. But the United States Marshal, it appears, in the hurry of the moment, forgot to put a guard over them, or take any other precaution whatever against their escape. The result, our readers will be astonished and disgusted to hear, has been that these contemptible fellows coolly walked out of the barracks, and went where they pleased. Such ungentlemanly behavior towards an officer of the law cannot be too severely reprehended. They must have known the Marshal's anxiety to have them stay; and to take advantage of his little oversight in not putting a sentry at the gate, or locking any of the doors, was a very paltry proceeding. Were we in the Marshal's or Mr. BUCHANAN's place we would not take any further notice of such fellows, but would leave them to their own devices. Conduct so atrocious as theirs would really lead one to believe that it may finally become necessary to confine persons guilty of criminal offences under lock and key. Could there be a more striking proof of the extent to which the country has degenerated under the baleful influence of the Abolitionists and Free-Soilers? When Mr. BUCHANAN and his Cabinet were young men, before people of the Territories cared whether they framed their own Constitutions or not, prisoners, we presume, stayed in jail of their own accord, and in capital cases "turned themselves off" neatly and expeditiously without troubling the Sheriff. Things are sadly changed since those days.

JENKINS ON MURDER.—In the way of frivolous ferocity, of combined ineptitude and brutality, it would be difficult to parallel from the records of any people reputed civilized, the details of the recent duel between Senator BRODERICK and Chief-Justice TERRY, as related in the telegraphic despatches which we this morning publish, in anticipation of the Overland Mail from California. We commented yesterday upon the public aspects of this most shocking story. Its actual features, as they are now made known, criticise themselves.

These two men, filling the first places in the political world of California, were led out by their seconds to fight, precisely as the Cuban negro carries his game-cock into the pit. They were carefully relieved of their coats, stripped accurately and neatly for the combat, planted in their places with conscientious accuracy, and then sermonized most solemnly upon their duty in the premises. As the clergyman reads the marriage-service to the couple he is about to join in holy wedlock; as the Chief Justice of the nation, (TERRY's model and prototype,) reads the oath of office to the President on his inauguration, so "one of the seconds" in this august affair recited the "code of the duello" to these deliberate murderers; and the deliberate murderers, one a Senator, one a Chief Justice, men matured in years, capable or supposed to be capable not only of controlling their own actions, but of influencing the actions of others, stood there gravely listening, abject puppets in this hideous farce, as unconscious of the colossal absurdity as they were of the shameful wickedness of the parts that they were playing.

Meanwhile "interested spectators" stood by, taking note of each man's motions, gestures, air and action, as minutely as the best sporting reporter possibly could of the progress and incidents of a great pugilistic contest for the champion's belt, or of a grand slaughter of rats by the accomplished terrier Jack. We have the elaborate results of this elevated curiosity before us. We know how often Mr. BRODERICK winked; how much of his person Judge TERRY "exposed to the fire" of his antagonist. What "iron nerve" each man showed himself to possess, and what a harmony of colors prevailed in the pantaloons of the combatants. The cold-blooded deliberation of the murderer's final aim is described in precisely the same sort of style with the removal of his shirt-collar. The immediate horror, the national disgrace of the transaction, do not seem to have occurred to any one concerned. The whole thing was an "exciting," "interesting," "appalling" variation upon the commonplaces of political life; and this exhibition, in which the asinine alternates with the atrocious from first to last, "went off" in the presence, as is now revealed, of others than the parties immediately implicated, without an attempt to arrest it. At least we assume this to be true, rather than adopt the still more intolerable idea that any one calling himself a "second" or a "friend" to either of the principals could first have chronicled the history of the scene with such imperturbable attention to the most trivial details, and then have hurried his disgusting narrative into print with such cynical disregard alike of public decency and of private feeling as the immortal JENKINS himself has never surpassed in dealing with the "hymeneal altar" and the fashionable ball.

HARD TO PLEASE.—We really must say that our cotemporary the Tribune is hard to please. He has been bemoaning for years the deplorable fact that, while we go on importing hundreds of millions of dollars' worth every year, we have nothing to give in exchange for it but our agricultural produce, and this Europe will not take, or does not take. Ergo, we shall be for ever in debt.

While the nation is sitting in sackcloth over this deplorable intelligence, Mr. JOHN A. DIX gets up at the State Fair and says that Europe does take our farm produce—that our exports have increased steadily for many years back, and that they may be expected to increase steadily in the future. This our neighbor does not deny, but Mr. DIX must not suppose he is going to achieve an easy victory. In an unguarded moment Mr. DIX gave utterance to an opinion which an ordinary observer might have thought safe, viz., that a succession of crops of any kind exhausts the soil, and that, if Western producers mean to keep up their harvests to their present average yield, they must manure. Who would have supposed that danger lurked in this innocent and indisputable proposition? And yet, on this very point has our watchful neighbor caught his adversary tripping. DIX has come off victorious on the export question, but the Tribune has "got him" on the manure.

PETER MULVEY, an eminent practitioner of the Ward Courts of this City, was not grander or more acute when, at the close of a suit which he lost, he informed a professional brother that "he had bate him on the thrial, but he (PETER) would bate him on the execution." "Precisely so, Mr. DIX," says the remorseless victor—"every bushel of wheat, or corn, or barrel of flour or meal, or tierce of beef or pork we send abroad takes away a portion of the phosphates and other precious elements of a fertile soil which are so easily exhausted, and so hardly and rarely restored." Poor Mr. DIX! Won't some one carry him out into the fresh air? We are exceedingly diffident about introducing ourselves into a melée with two such doughty antagonists, but we humbly and respectfully venture to inquire how, if the flour and meal and pork and beef from the Great West are devoted, as the Tribune wishes them to be, to feeding American citizens in the great manufacturing centres of New-England and Pennsylvania, can the phosphates and other precious elements find their way back to Illinois and Ohio, any more than if sent to England or France? How in the name of wonder can a loaf, or a junk of pork, eaten in Boston fertilize the prairie region any more than if eaten in Manchester or Lyons? Does our excellent neighbor contemplate an arrangement between Western farmers and Eastern scavengers for the re-transmission of "the phosphates and other precious elements," as part of his financial policy? And how hard he is to please! Europe will not take our farm produce in exchange, and our farmers will be ruined by debt; or she will take them—but if she does, she takes "our phosphates" too! It must be confessed our farmers are in an awful plight.

OUR CITY GOVERNMENT.—The Courier and Enquirer says, "There was a time when our City was well governed, when the right men were put in the right place—a time when the qualification for office was not subserviency to party, but the possession on the part of the candidate of those qualities which constitute true fitness—integrity and ability."

We should like to know at about what period of our history these halcyon days occurred, as we never happen to have heard of them before, and we feel satisfied they must be veiled in the mists of antiquity. We beg to remind our venerable friend, however, that the origin of New-York is much more recent than "the golden age," and we greatly fear that no City has never been governed in the manner described, since that most remarkable epoch. If the Historical Society can throw any light on the matter, pray let them set about it quickly and furnish us with a paper on the wondrous story of New-York, in the days when all the [illegible] citizens agreed upon the fittest persons to be Mayors and Aldermen, and chose them infallibly at every election.

MACAULAY's famous rhapsody over Florence in the days of her glory would never have burst forth in the essay on MACHIAVELLI, if he had known anything of what municipal government once was on this side of the Atlantic. The mediæval republics might well pale their fires before the Courier's "old New-York."

We are, as we have remarked already, unable to say at what precise period the right men were always to be found in all the right places in this City; but we can confidently predict that such a state of things will never be witnessed again, either here or anywhere else, until some unlooked-for change takes place in human nature. Closer approximations to a perfect government than we make at present, we may fairly look for; but a perfect government, such as "the right men in all the right places" would in reality constitute, we shall never see, until that glorious epoch which the nurseries anticipate with so much glee,—when the streets will be paved with fat turkeys, and pigs run through them, with knives stuck in their throats, shouting "Who'll eat me? Who'll eat me?"

THE GREAT EASTERN DELAYS.—The Great Eastern, true to her name, is slow to make a western trip. Although advertised to sail for America on the 27th of the current month, it really begins to be a little doubtful whether she can be made ready to undertake the voyage during the present year. The intimations to this effect, made by our Special Correspondent on board the Great Eastern in his letter which we published yesterday, are strengthened by the news which the Indian brings us to-day. The repairs of the steam leviathan are to be intrusted to the care of the Board of Trade; and once caught in the fatal toils of Government red-tape, who can tell when the vessel shall emerge again, equipped for her much less perilous contest with the Atlantic seas?

For the present the "success" of the monster ship seems like the "success" of the Thames Tunnel, to be a success of amazement rather than of utility. She will be moved to Southampton, there to be stared at by the admiring thousands, and studied by the appreciative few. Still, we cannot permit ourselves to believe that an achievement so colossal will eventually fail to vindicate itself in every particular. Doubtless the first builders of the world's first ocean-going vessel—those bold fellows, heart-bound with oak and triple brass, of whom HORACE sings with such luxurious and "lubberly" wonder—were to the full as long in launching their rude craft successfully and in adjusting her rig to the workings of the mysterious winds, as SCOTT RUSSELL and BRUNEL were in preparing their new and mighty revolution on the sea. There may be deferrings of expectation, vexations, misfortunes still to be overcome, but we will not do the enterprise which has accomplished so much the injustice of supposing that it can in any circumstances stop short of completely working out the grandest nautical experiment of modern times.

THE BRITISH MAIL CONTRACTS.—The blue book has just appeared of the Select Committee appointed by the House of Commons in July last to investigate all existing packet and telegraphic contracts between the British Government and companies or individuals, of which Committee Mr. COBDEN was Chairman. Owing to the advanced period of the session at which the inquiry commenced, it was limited to the contract for conveying the mails between Dover and Calais, which the Derby Government had extended in April, though it had then four years to run, at the same time increasing the subsidy, without stipulating for any improvement of the service; and it was shown in evidence that this extension was the price which the contractor received for his support of the Ministerial candidates at the Dover election. So important was this inquiry considered, and with such keenness was it pursued, that Mr. HOADLEY, the President of the Panama Railroad Company, who had gone to England for the purpose of placing before the Committee the facilities afforded by that route for the transmission of the Australian mails; and Mr. MEREWETHER, clerk of the Executive Council of New South Wales, who was in London for the purpose of urging the adoption of that route; as well as a gentleman from Canada, who was desirous of giving evidence upon the subject of the American mails, were not called, and will have to wait until next session, when the Committee will be reappointed. The Committee condemned the extension of the Dover contract, and recommended the House of Commons to refuse the supply necessary to enable the agreement to be carried into effect.

This recommendation affects closely the contract made about the same time with the Atlantic Mail Company for the conveyance of the mails between Galway and New-York, which contract, it is understood, will be the next to undergo investigation. Sir CUSACK RONEY, whose interest in all that concerns the improvement of postal and passenger communication between Great Britain and North America is well known, has addressed a letter to the Dublin journals, confidently asserting that it is the intention of the Government to avail of the anticipated result of the inquiry to endeavor to set the Galway contract aside. The Dublin Freeman questions the accuracy of Sir CUSACK's information, and maintains that the Government have no power to do so. It is admitted that the House of Commons has the power to refuse the vote for the subsidy, but it is held that such a course is unprecedented, and very unlikely to be adopted; and that even if Liverpool and local Irish influence should prove strong enough in the House to cause the vote to be refused, the Government would still be bound to carry out their engagements with the Company.

POLITICAL.

The October Elections.

Five States—Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Minnesota—hold General Elections to-day. No Members of Congress are to be chosen, except in Minnesota, and in one district of Ohio; the latter to fill a vacancy. Pennsylvania elects an Auditor-General and Surveyor-General, but no Governor. Ohio, Iowa and Minnesota are to choose full State tickets. The tickets run by both parties in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa are as follows:

PENNSYLVANIA.

	Opposition.	Democratic.
Aud. Gen.	T. E. Cochran.	R. L. Wright.
Sur. Gen.	Wm. H. Keim.	John Rowe.

OHIO.

	Opposition.	Democratic.
Governor	Wm. Dennison, Jr.	Rufus P. Ranney.
Lieut.-Gov.	Robt. C. Kirk.	Wm. H. Safford.
Auditor	Robt. W. Taylor.	G. Volney Dorsey.
Sec'y State	A. P. Russell.	Jacob Reinhard.
St. Treas.	Alf. P. Stone.	Wm. Bushnell.
Sup. Judge	W. Y. Gholson.	Henry C. Whitman.
Bd. Pub. Wks.	G. B. Gregory.	James Tomlinson.
Sch. Com'r.	Anson Smyth.	Charles N. Allen.

IOWA.

	Opposition.	Democratic.
Governor	S. J. Kirkwood.	Augustus C. Dodge.
Lieut.-Gov.	Nich. J. Rusch.	L. W. Babbitt.
Supt. Judges	Ralph P. Lowe.	Thos. S. Wilson.
	L. D. Stockton.	Charles Mason.
	Caleb Baldwin.	C. C. Cole.

In Minnesota, the Republicans have put up a strong ticket, as follows:

Governor—Alex. W. Ramsay. Lieutenant-Governor—J. Donelly. Secretary of State—J. H. Baker. Treasurer—Chas. Schaeffer. Attorney-General—J. E. Call. Congress—1. Cal. Aldrich. 2. Wm. Windom.

In Indiana the election is for members of the Legislature. Governor Willard holds office until January, 1861. In Minnesota Governor Ramsay was nominated by the Republicans by acclamation. The term of office of Governor Sibley expires next January. In Minnesota and Ohio the canvass has been most active during the Summer and Fall, and a large vote will probably be cast in both these States.

THE GEORGIA ELECTION.

The reëlection of Gov. Brown, (Dem.,) of Georgia, is conceded. His majority over Aken is probably 15,000. The State Legislature is Democratic in both branches. The Opposition have elected two Representatives to Congress, and the Democrats six; the new delegation standing politically as in the last Congress. The Congressmen elect are: District I. Peter E. Love, (Dem.;) II. Martin J. Crawford, (Dem., reëlected;) III. Thomas Hardeman, Jr., (Opp.;) IV. Lucius J. Gartrell, (Dem., reëlected;) V. J. W. H. Underwood, (Dem.;) VI. James Jackson, (Dem., reëlected;) VII. Joshua Hill, (Opp., reëlected; VIII. John J. Jones, (Dem.,) in place of Alex. H. Stephens. Members reëlected, 4.

MISSISSIPPI AND FLORIDA.

These States held General Elections on the 3d of October. Returns have not reached us; but as there was little opposition to the Democratic ticket in Mississippi, it may be safely assumed that the Hon. John J. Pettus was elected Governor, and that the following gentlemen were elected to Congress, viz.: L. Q. C. Lamar, Reuben Davis, Wm. Barksdale, O. R. Singleton, and John J. McRae. A State Legislature was also chosen.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

Augusta, Monday, Oct. 10.

Dispatches from Jacksonville say: The returns of the election in Florida are incomplete, but the indications are that Dupont is certainly elected to the Chief Justiceship.

The proposition to annex West Florida to Alabama was voted down.

City Politics.

Mozart Hall Assembly Nominations.—Adjourned meetings of Mozart Hall Assembly Conventions were held last evening. In the Second District the delegates were again unable to agree, and adjourned until Thursday evening. The Fifth District Convention were at loggerheads and had not agreed upon a nominee. At a late hour Mr. Samuel S. Webster was nominated in the Sixth District.

TAMMANY HALL PRIMARIES.

The Tammany Hall primary elections for delegates to the various nominating conventions were held last evening in all the Wards without any disturbance, save in the "Sixth," where a man by the name of McNary was stabbed. There was but little excitement. The "Regular" tickets were in each instance successful.

Later news from Dr. Livingstone's expedition is received by the Canada. A letter from the Doctor's companion, Mr. Kirk, states that a trip had been made to a lake elevated considerably above the Zambesi. Mr. Kirk adds: "During our walk, which took us three days, doing about twenty miles a day, we met some curious people, but were glad to find all friendly. I returned thus quickly, as I expected the Doctor back from Tete, whither he had gone on his first trip with the powder, which it would have been unsafe to have left in a country at present at war. I received, however, instead, a letter from him, stating that the water is so low at places where the river spreads to an excessive width, that the pinnace could not be taken up at once, until the channel had been previously surveyed by the launch; that the pinnace was left somewhat a little beyond Scuna, in charge of Baines; that the launch would proceed to Tete, return, pick up the pinnace, and afterwards return to Chupanga."

A letter from Florence, treating of the revelations made in the letters left behind her by the Duchess of Parma, says that the correspondence was with the Emperor of Austria and the Legitimist chiefs in Paris. In the letters addressed to the Emperor of Austria by the Duchess, subsequent to the declaration of neutrality, the Emperor was acquainted with all the movements of the Sardinian army, and the most advantageous plan of attack. The Emperor is urged to act energetically before the French are in Italy, and to come to the succor of the Italian Dukes, "his allies, and the only supporters of the Austrian dominion in the Peninsula." "The safety of Austria," adds the Duchess, "is in the promptitude of its operations. If it waits, it is lost in Italy, together with its allies." In the letters to her correspondents in Paris, the person of the Emperor Napoleon did not escape, the Duchess giving him the titles of "ogre," and "the greatest Tartuffe of modern times."

A letter from Paris says: Senator Seward has gone to Egypt. It is a very bold step, at least so it is considered here in Paris, for an American to make such an expedition so early in the season, and more or less anxiety will be felt about him until heard from. Barring the insalubrity of the season, he has chosen the best time to see many of the countries he has visited, especially Rome, Spain, and Egypt, for he escapes the throng of Americans and English and the sharks they bring about them, that infest the highways late in the season, and thus his view of the people and their institutions is less obstructed. It is doubtful whether he will be able to go down the Nile, and there is some danger that he may be detained longer in Quarantine than will be agreeable, so that his fate is naturally the subject of considerable speculation here among others than politicians.

The artist Wight, of Boston, has just painted the "Puritan Maiden," from Longfellow's Courtship of Miles Standish. The Boston Journal says: "The artist has portrayed her dressed in the plain and becoming attire of a young girl of her time, as she sat at her work in the rude oaken chair of the forefathers. At her side is her spinning-wheel, and in her hand the small and pretty bunch of wild flowers, which the youthful and gallant John Alden gathered by the woodside, on his anxious way to her domicil."

Mr. William Veazie, of Boston, has nearly ready for publication a new revised edition of Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy, in three duodecimo volumes, elegantly printed upon tinted paper. Also, an edition of the Essays of Elia, in one volume.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE—A DIFFICULTY APPREHENDED WITH THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT—TROUBLE WITH THE NATIVE CHIEFS.

By the arrival of the M. C. Stevens from Monrovia, we have interesting news from Liberia. The colony was in a prosperous condition. An abundant harvest was anticipated, and a large quantity of palm-oil had been shipped to the United States, England, France and Germany. The news from the farming region is encouraging; sugar and syrup had been made in considerable quantities during the season; coffee was more extensively cultivated, and tobacco had been raised in small quantities. Attention had been paid to the cultivation of cotton.

There was some excitement in the political circles of Monrovia on learning that the Liberian brig E. N. Roye had been compelled to pay tonnage dues in the harbor of New-York.

President Benson had visited the leeward settlements, and in some of them met with a chilly reception. At Cape Palmas he called the chiefs into council to settle the difficulties which have been disturbing that portion of the country, but was not able to adjust them. He has threatened them with war [illegible], and has already made a requisition on some of the friendly chiefs for a certain number of warriors.

The United States sloop-of-war Portsmouth arrived at Monrovia on the 7th of August, and sailed on the 12th. The officers and crew were well.

Mr. T. Morris Chester, editor of the Star of Liberia, and Charles M. Gammon, American trader on the Coast of Africa for a house in Wall-street, are the cabin passengers by the Stevens.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

An Anti-Slavery Class Meeting at the Church of the Pilgrims.—An audience, four-fifths of which were ladies, assembled last evening in the Lecture-room of the Church of the Pilgrims (the Rev. Dr. Cheever's) to participate in a monthly meeting, instituted for the purpose of agitating the "sin of Slavery," and to pray for its overthrow. Dr. Cheever reviewed the action of the American Board of Foreign Missions, at its late meeting in Philadelphia, on the subject of Slavery. The existence of Slavery had been almost ignored at the previous meeting of the Board, and it was not until the morning of the third day that the subject was alluded to at its recent session. Then it was introduced in the shape of a memorial to Congress praying for the enactment of laws making the Slave trade piracy. Although this memorial was consigned to its tomb in the hands of the Prudential Committee of the Board, a great victory had been won in the mere fact that the Board had been forced to entertain the subject at all. Mr. C. severely animadverted upon those professed friends of the movement who had promised to countenance him in his effort to bring the matter before the Board, and after he had done so had shown themselves traitors and were dumb. He was encouraged, however, to believe that the Anti-Slavery feeling was gaining ground in the Board, and each year the sentiment was becoming more apparent. The Rev. Mr. Thompson, for 15 years a Missionary to the colored people in Jamaica, West Indies, and who departs on Wednesday to resume his labors in that field, followed with brief remarks relative to the social condition of the colored race in that Island, and of the difficulty which they experienced in overcoming the demoralization into which the system had plunged the race. The Rev. John J. Fee, of Kentucky, spoke of the evils of Southern Slavery, and urged upon his audience the duty of sturdily advancing those opinions which they entertained and which had so identified them with the Abolition movement. In so doing they would be encouraging the hearts and infusing spirit into that handful of men whose task it was to battle with the giant sin in its very stronghold. He implored the continuance of their prayers that God would blot the curse from existence. Other speeches and prayers were offered and the meeting adjourned.

The Disaster to the Quaker City.—Consultation was held yesterday by the Messrs. Hargous & Co., as to the best course to be pursued with reference to the safety of the Quaker City, her remaining passengers and the mails. The only cause of anxiety for the steamer was on account of the heavy northeast gale which was known to be prevailing in the vicinity where she must be. She is rigged as a hermaphrodite brig, can spread considerable canvas, and if prevented from reaching New-York, can no doubt get into Hampton Roads. Capt. Shufeldt, who is known to have great confidence in his ship, will probably make every exertion to return here, but under sail alone, and with the retarding force of two heavy side wheels, her progress would necessarily be slow. In the absence of suitable steamers to send in search of the disabled steamer, application was made, by telegraph, to the Secretary of the Treasury, to permit the use of the Harriet Lane for that purpose. The Quaker City being a mail steamer, and having the mails on board, it was believed Mr. Cobb would issue the order for her to go upon that duty, a service which Capt. Faunce is more than willing to undertake. Nothing definite, however, has been heard in reply. The Company have telegraphed to their agent at Norfolk, to bring the passengers to New-York by the steamer Yorktown, which left there last evening. They will thus reach here to-morrow morning, probably in season for a portion of the passengers to go to Havana by the Cahawba, which leaves on that day. By that time it is also hoped that the steamer will have been heard from, and her mails secured for sending forward. The following is a list of the passengers who remained on board of the Quaker City, as received, last evening, by telegraph from Norfolk: John B. Pall, Henry Jones, Manual Berard, J. Ross, C. G. Monsalve, E. Chartrand and friend, E. L. Crabbe, lady and two children, John Chartrand, J. B. de Bundrey, Mme. F. Golibart, F. R. Dias, M. Graville, lady and son, C. W. Torrance, wife and child, D. José Dias, and G. Desaldo.

Father Matthew's Birthday—Celebration at the City Assembly Rooms.—The anniversary of the birthday of Father Matthew, and also of the establishment of the Father Matthew Total Abstinence Benevolent Society, was celebrated in the City Assembly Rooms, in Broadway, last evening, under the auspices of the Society above named, in coöperation with the St. James' R. C. Total Abstinence Benevolent Society. The exercises consisted of addresses, interspersed with singing, and concluded with a ball and supper. The meeting was opened with a statement relative to the organization, progress and objects of the Father Matthew Society, by the President, Mr. Edward L. Carey. Judge Culver, of Brooklyn, was expected to deliver the principal address of the evening, on the life and services of this great Apostle of Temperance, but in his absence, the duty was acceptably performed, at short notice, by the Hon. C. C. Leigh. He sketched at considerable length the labors of Father Matthew in his own country, and was followed by the Hon. George F. Briggs. He contrasted the Society as it existed thirty years ago with the Society of the present time, as regards Temperance, and drew favorable auguries for the future. Mr. Briggs was followed by Mr. Wadick, Ex-President of the Father Matthew Society, and by Mr. McGrath, President of the St. James Society. At the conclusion of the speaking, the floor was cleared. The dancing then commenced, and was continued until an early hour this morning.

The Marine Society.—The third quarterly meeting for the current year, of the Marine Society for the port of New-York, was held last evening at the United States Hotel, Capt. Charles H. Marshall, the President, in the chair. There was a larger attendance than usual. Capt. Tinkham read the reports for the last quarter, by which it appeared that there had been paid out to widows, $3,692 75; for other expenses, $7,267 06; total, $10,959 81. The receipts from collections in cash were $794, interest on bonds and mortgages, $8,977 24; balance in the Treasury, $1,188 57; total, $10,959 81. There are sixty widows on the pension list, receiving annually $70, $80 and $90 each. The payments are made semi-annually in advance. During last quarter one widow has been added to the list. Ten years ago her husband was worth over one hundred thousand dollars; but California adventures and unlucky investments in railroad stock had made him poor, and five years since he died an inmate of an insane asylum. His widow is now a rightful beneficiary of the Society, receiving $90 per year during her life. In some cases orphan children are the sole recipients of the Society's bounty, both parents being dead. The Society has numbered 2,753 members—at present it has about five hundred. At the conclusion of the proceedings the members dined together as usual.

Laying of the Corner-Stone of a Baptist Church.—The corner-stone of the Madison-avenue Baptist Church (the Rev. Dr. Hague) was laid yesterday with appropriate solemnities. The Rev. Dr. Hague, Dr. Thompson of the Tabernacle Congregational Church, Dr. Dowling and others taking part in the proceedings. Some two hundred persons witnessed the ceremonies. The church edifice is 68 feet front on Madison-avenue, and 112 feet deep on Thirty-first-street. It will have two towers, 20 by 20 feet, one of them 100 feet high, surmounted by a steeple which will be 80 feet in height. The main auditorium is to be 50 feet high, with two side galleries, and an organ gallery in front. A chapel, 30 by 90 feet, is added to the rear of the church. The cost of the lot was $48,500. Mr. Jacob Vanderpool, of whom they were purchased, contributing $5,000 towards the amount. The cost of the entire edifice will be about $100,000. It will be ready for occupancy in about one year from this time. The location is considered one of the most eligible in the City.

Respite of Appo.—The Albany Evening Journal states that application for a further respite has been made to the Governor by counsel in behalf of Quimbo Appo, who was convicted of murder in the City of New-York in April last, upon the ground that the counsel who had undertaken to prepare the papers for the motion for a new trial has been seriously sick for the last two months, and it has been found necessary, therefore, to place the case in the hands of other counsel; but so recently has this been done, that the present counsel is unable to prepare the papers before the end of the present week. In compliance with a request, most reasonable under the circumstances, the Governor has respited the sentence of Appo to Friday, the 11th day of November next, thus giving a further period of four weeks, during which it is believed the motions can be argued and a decision of the Court on the question of granting a new trial procured.

Sixth Ward Stabbing Affray.—Immediately after the closing of the Democratic Primary Elections in the Sixth Ward, last evening, a large and excited crowd assembled in the grocery and liquor store at No. 23 Pell-street. After partaking plentifully of liquor, a dispute arose respecting the manner in which the primaries were carried on. Dennis McNary became quite excited on the subject. The keeper of the saloon, whose name is John Crimmins, attempted to end the dispute by turning McNary out of doors. McNary, it is said, then caught up a stone and was about assaulting the proprietor, when the latter seized a short sword and stabbed McNary several times in the back and stomach, inflicting serious and probably fatal injuries. The man who committed the stabbing then fled, and up to a late hour last night had not been arrested, but his friends say that he will surrender himself to-day. McNary was taken to the New-York Hospital.

Tribute of Respect to the late Mr. Leupp.—The merchants of the Swamp met yesterday afternoon at the store of George Palen & Co., to take some action which should indicate the high regard in which they held the late Charles M. Leupp. Mr. Loring Andrews presided and Messrs. John Armstrong and Samuel T. Kesse acted as Secretaries. Mr. Isaac H. Bailey presented a series of resolutions which referred to the high honor and scrupulous fidelity to every engagement which characterized the deceased; to his spotless integrity, social worth, gifted intellect and varied accomplishments. They also expressed the sympathy of the meeting with the bereaved relatives. These resolutions were unanimously adopted, after brief remarks by Messrs. Edward M. Young, Isaac H. Bailey and J. S. Schultz. At a future meeting it is proposed to have a paper read on Mr. L.'s life and character.

A Convict Escaped from Sing Sing Re-arrested.—About six months ago, Chauncy Johnson, sentenced to Sing Sing for having robbed a silk store in this City, escaped from confinement and went to Canada. Information having been received that he had ventured to visit Massachusetts, two officers were dispatched to Boston to follow him up. While they were sitting in the Revere House waiting to take the cars for Lowell, who should make his appearance but the very man for whom they were searching. He was immediately rearrested, and arrived in this City at 4 o'clock yesterday in charge of Officer Fitzmaurice, of the Second Precinct. At 5 P. M., he was sent to Sing Sing, and this morning is no doubt reinstated in his old quarters.

Review of the Sixth Regiment.—There was a review of the Sixth Regiment yesterday afternoon at Madison-square, James C. Pinckney, commanding. The line formed at 3½ o'clock P. M., and after being reviewed, they broke into column by Companies, and were inspected by Maj. S. M. Alvord. The following returns were made:—There were eight Companies on the ground, the rank and file, with the staff officers making 275 men. There were sixty-five absentees which increases the actual number of the Regiment to 360. After the inspection they were reviewed by Major-General Sandford and staff, and presented a very creditable appearance.

Fire at Staten Island.—A fire broke out yesterday, about 3½ A. M., in the house adjoining the Quarantine Ferry landing, owned and occupied by Mr. Wiener as a saloon and dwelling, which, with its contents, was entirely destroyed. The flames communicated to the dwellings of D. Reagan and Matthew Carroll, leveling both to the ground. The former was a drinking saloon and dwelling, and the latter a dwelling only. The loss is estimated to be $10,000. The ferry-house, with the fences, gates, &c., were entirely destroyed.

Body Recovered.—A man, only known by the name of Henry, who had been employed as a deck-hand on board the propeller Quinnebaug, was found drowned on Sunday in the river at the foot of Cortlandt-street. Deceased had been missing for a week, and when last seen was much intoxicated. In that state he is supposed to have fallen into the water. Coroner Schirmer held an inquest.

Lectures by Prof. O. M. Mitchell.—This distinguished astronomer will, to-night, deliver the first of a series of lectures on the "Astronomy of the Bible," in the Calvary Baptist Church in Twenty-third-street nearly opposite the Fifth-avenue Hotel. We understand these lectures are now delivered for the first time in this City.

Fire in Attorney-street.—At a few minutes before 12 o'clock last evening a fire broke out in the machine shop of James Lyons, No. 125 Attorney-street. The fire was discovered by some firemen, who extinguished the flames before much damage was done.

Walking on the Water.—Mr. Hickok, the Canadian Water-walker, is to make a display of his powers this afternoon at 3 o'clock, near the Hoboken Yacht Club-house.

New Counterfeits.—Last evening a new counterfeit bill of the denomination of $10, on the Bank of the Capitol of Albany, N. Y., made its appearance. But few of the bills were passed however.

Postponed.—The race for the championship, to be rowed yesterday, at Staten Island, was postponed until to-day or first fair day.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

The Plymouth Lectures in Brooklyn—Introductory by the Rev. E. H. Chapin.—The Rev. E. H. Chapin delivered the first of the Plymouth Lectures last evening in Mr. Beecher's Church, Brooklyn, to a crowded and brilliant audience. His subject was, "Woman and her Works." The lecturer was introduced in a neat speech by Mr. Theo. Tilton, and was warmly received. His remarks were directed to a discussion of the false position which woman holds in the social scale, growing out of her defective education. He said there had been a great deal of talk about woman's sphere;—but woman's true sphere was simply that in which her whole nature could be harmoniously developed. He recognized no such thing as man's rights or woman's rights—he recognized merely human rights. Woman has never occupied her true position, however. She has been regarded as anything rather than a responsible human being. She is either man's empress or his slave. Woman's false education must answer for this. Her early life was spent in coasting along the shore of matrimony. She is educated to make a match rather than do a work. All abhor a male gambler, but how many women gamble, not with money, but with jeweled fingers and graceful airs—a parlor angel in velvet or moire antique. Woman's works, when she is properly educated, will flow spontaneously from woman's nature. She is educated now precisely on the same plan that a Broadway window is decorated. Woman's true work is what all concede it to be, the work of home. But, admitting the importance of this work, there is a large portion to whom home duties never come—who are compelled to earn their own living; and it is a shame to limit this large class who must work to the narrow sphere they now occupy. Machinery is robbing her of many things which have been exclusively her own; and her sphere of labor must be enlarged or she must perish. This is not a demand of Woman's Rights, it is the claim of her humanity. This the lecturer claimed must be accomplished by giving woman a more thorough education. The reverend gentleman paid many eloquent tributes to woman's heroism and devotion, and was enthusiastically applauded throughout. The next lecture is to be delivered by Geo. Wm. Curtis on the present aspect of the Slavery question.

Common Council.—The Water Works.—A regular meeting of the Brooklyn Board of Aldermen was held last evening. The whole session was consumed in the consideration of matters pertaining to the approaching election and the difficulty between the Water Commissioners and the Comptroller. The Water and Drainage Committee made a lengthy report upon a resolution referred to them in June last, concluding with resolutions approving the action of the Comptroller, in refusing to accept the drafts of the Water Commissioners; declaring it as the opinion of the Board that the action of the Commissioners in laying assessments was illegal, and instructing them to take such measures as they might deem necessary to protect the rights of the city. With the reports were presented the written opinions of Messrs. McCoe, Daniel Lord, J. K. Porter, A. J. Parker and J. Greenwood, showing that the act of April, 1859, amending the Water act so as to allow the Commissioners to increase the cost of the water-works, was unconstitutional. All of the resolutions but that approving the action of the Comptroller were laid on the table. The Water Commissioners have obtained an alternative mandamus, requiring the Comptroller to show cause, before Mr. Justice Lott, on Saturday next, why he refuses to issue the city bonds upon drafts for work done under the act of April, 1859. The Board adjourned for one week.

Burglars Arrested.—Two men, named Thomas Burdett and James Lyon, were arrested in New-York on Sunday night, by Sergeant Croft and Officer Dawson, of the Second Precinct, this city, on a charge of burglary, alleged to have been committed by them on Thursday night last, at No. 52 Main-street. The accused were yesterday committed for trial by Justice Cornwell.

Brooklyn Courts.—City Court Calendar for this day.—Nos. 3, 4, 5, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 21, 21½, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31. Circuit Court.—Nos. 2, 3, 21, 22, 25, 26, 27, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41.

Visiting Firemen.—Relief Engine Company No. 3, of New-Haven, arrived in this city yesterday, on a visit to Franklin Engine Company No. 3.

Meeting of Stockholders of the Erie Railroad—Nomination of a Ticket for Directors.

The Stockholders of the Erie Railroad, to the number of about fifty, met at the Cooper Institute, last evening, to consult upon the interests of the road, and to nominate a ticket for Directors, to be voted for at the election which takes place to-day. Among the principal Stockholders present were George Bruce, Daniel Drew, Washington Mills, Thomas Ewbank, K. Albertis, and others.

Dr. H. G. Dunnel was called to the chair, and Thomas Ewbank appointed Secretary. The chairman briefly stated the objects of the meeting, and was followed by Mr. Bruce, who spoke of the past prosperity and present adversity of the Erie Railroad Company, and said that the same Directors had presided over its destinies during its rise and fall. The intentions of these Directors, he had no doubt, were good, but many of them had no interest in the road; and he would respectfully suggest whether it would not be well to place the affairs of the company in new hands. Something must be done soon or the road would be sold by order of the Court. The present Board of Directors had, according to their usual custom, nominated a ticket composed mostly of the old names. Another ticket, called the stockholders' ticket, had been put forth, containing several names of persons who owned no stock in the road.

He hoped this meeting would nominate a ticket which would meet the wishes of the Stockholders and prove to be for the best interests of the road.

Mr. Van Stavoren could not see how, in the present condition of the road, a new Board of Directors would be able to do better than the old.

A list of the present Stockholders, with the number of shares owned by each, was called for, when it appeared that five of the Directors owned together only 37 shares—three of them having 10 each, one 5, and one 2.

After some further remarks from different gentlemen, the following ticket for Directors was presented and unanimously adopted:

John Arnott, Elmira.	Herman Gelpcke, N. Y.
Gilbert S. Gregory, J. City.	G. W. Van Stavoren, N. Y.
Ambrose S. Murray, Goshen.	E. L. Brown, N. Y.
S. H. P. Hall, Binghamton.	E. K. Albertis, N. Y.
Thos. Ewbank, New-York.	Geo. Bruce, N. Y.
David Ogden, N. Y.	Washington Mills, N. Y.
A. S. Cotheal, N. Y.	Ross W. Wood, N. Y.
Jno. A. Luqueer, N. Y.	Jno. Wadsworth, N. Y.
Daniel Drew, N. Y.

Those in italics are new names; the others are members of the present Board.

Collision in the East River.

THE VANDERBILT RUNS INTO A SLOOP AND IS FORCED ON FLOOD ROCK—$10,000 DAMAGE.

Yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, the steamer C. Vanderbilt, Capt. Sturges, of the Stonington line, left her dock with about 250 passengers, and a large and valuable freight. After starting, the steamer Connecticut, of the Norwich and Worcester line, came up, and was about passing the Vanderbilt, when the engineer of the latter increased the speed of his boat, and just before coming abreast of Williamsburgh, the Vanderbilt shot ahead. When passing through Hurl Gate, the sloop Holbrook was observed endeavoring to back into Gaylor's Dock at the foot of Ninety-first-street. The pilot of the Vanderbilt, probably thinking that he could pass the bows of the sloop safely, attempted to do so, but unfortunately they came in contact, with such force that a part of the ladies' cabin and several berths of the steamer were carried away, and she was forced on Flood Rock. The steamtug J. L. Stevens, which happened to be coming down the stream, immediately proceeded to the steamer, took off all the passengers, the baggage, and a portion of the light freight, and brought them to the City. The damage to the steamboat amounts to about $10,000, and is said to be insured. It was found, shortly after the vessels had come together, that the steamer had sprung a leak, but by unloading a portion of the freight, at 10 o'clock last evening the steamer was afloat. No one was injured, but the affair created great consternation among the lady passengers. This steamboat has been ashore twice before in about the same locality. Last Winter she ran ashore on Fisher's Island, near Stonington, and was damaged to the amount of $40,000.

Consolidation of the Telegraph Lines.—Negotiations, having in view the union of the several telegraph lines between New-Orleans and Sackville, (New-Brunswick,) and for the permanent connection for all business purposes of the seaboard lines with those of the North and West, have, it is well known, been pending for some months past. Such arrangements, we are now assured, have been concluded between the companies interested. The new combination will, we understand, be organized immediately under a special charter from the Legislature of New-Jersey, and will have an aggregate capital of about $1,500,000.

Fire Insurance.
The suit of HORSEMANN BROS. & ALLIEN, for $19,000 damages by fire in Maiden-lane, in June, 1855, against the following sixteen companies, who procured two individuals to swear that the loss was but $68, will be tried at the Superior Court on FRIDAY, Oct. 14.

This case will open the eyes of insurers to the modus operandi, to avoid paying claims, of both old and new Insurance Companies.

Obituary.—Upon the record of recent deaths has been inscribed the name of Edward Martin, aged 77.

This venerable man was a native of Rhode Island—a descendant of an honorable ancestry—the son of the Hon. Simeon Martin, of Newport.

Mr. Martin was bred to commercial life, and in the pursuit of his early career, he was a traveler through various countries and climates, and had the advantage, then somewhat less common than at present, of a wide intercourse with the world.

But to him commercial pursuits had few attractions. His nature was too refined and his temper too credulous to cope successfully with the less scrupulous minds with which he was brought into conflict. By nature he was a gentleman; and his native instincts were stimulated by his varied intercourse with men of similar tastes, until his too delicate and generous appreciation of other opinions forbade him to admit into his own mind a doubt of the honor or truth of any man who came to him with the mein and garb of a gentleman. He was, of course, often the victim of the plausible and the promising. But this refinement of character, however unfortunate in the business world, made him the cheerful and genial centre of his own social and domestic world, where he was loved and cherished with a warmth and tenderness—an earnest and deep affection which God does not grant to the coarser natures which live and prosper and have their comfort and compensation in success.

Mr. Martin was always an eminently pure man: and the transition from his normal condition, to that of an humble Christian, was so easy and unobtrusive that the change was wrought with no apparent struggle.

The latter years of his life were passed in Flushing, where, amid scenes of rural beauty, surrounded by those he loved, he breathed his soul away in tranquil harmony with scenes so loving and so lovely—at peace with man and God—and, "like a shock of corn fully ripe," is garnered for Eternity.

LEDIARD'S MORNING CALL, AS A TONIC AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL, commends itself to the dyspeptic.
It is also diuretic and alterative, and is strongly recommended in dropsy and disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys, or urinary organs.
Ladies in delicate health experience the greatest benefits from its use, as it corrects
WEAKNESS AND IRREGULARITY, and gives tone and strength to the entire system.
It is also a most agreeable beverage, universally admired, and will inevitably become the leading favorite at first-class bars and restaurants throughout the Union.
Sold by liquor dealers, druggists and grocers.
Dépôt, No. 37 South William-st.
C. LEDIARD, Agent.

THE PECULIARITIES OF THE FEMALE constitution, and the various trials to which the sex is subjected, demand an occasional recourse to stimulants. It is important, however, that these shall be of a harmless nature, and at the same time accomplish the desired end. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS is the very article. Its effects in all cases of debility are almost magical. It restores the tone of the digestive organs, infuses fresh vitality into the whole system, and gives that cheerfulness to the temperament which is the most valuable of feminine attractions. The proprietors feel flattered from the fact that many of the most prominent medical gentlemen in the Union have bestowed encomiums upon the Bitters, the virtues of which they have frequently tested and acknowledged. Sold by all druggists.

A CONTINUATION OF THE EXTRAORDINARY LOW PRICES.—We beg to call the attention of our friends and the public in general to our pure Hungarian wines, of which we have again received large shipments, which we continue to sell at the lowest prices that can be offered, viz.: Budai (red wine) and Pesti (white wine), at $3 75 per dozen each, in loose bottles, without caps and labels; sent to any part of the City, free of charge. Other brands in proportion. Examine before purchasing elsewhere.

MEDICAL.

CHARLES [illegible] BARROW, M. D.,
Pupil of [illegible], of Paris, and late of Professors [illegible] and Valentine Mott, of this City, continues to be consulted on all Diseases of a Private nature, Spermatorrhœa, &c., &c., at
NO. 61 BLEECKER-ST.,
a few doors east of Broadway, New-York. Inveterate cases, including Scrofulous, Mercurial and Chronic affections, Nervous Diseases, and Self-induced Consumption skilfully treated. Office hours from 9 to 2 and 6 to 9.

THE ALL-SUFFICIENT THREE!
TRIESEMAR 1, 2, AND 3.
Protected by Royal Letters Patent of England, and secured by the Seals of the Ecole de Pharmacie de Paris, and the Imperial College of Medicine, Vienna.

No. 1 is invaluable for exhaustion, spermatorrhœa, and all physical disabilities.

No. 2 completely eradicates all traces of those diseases that have been hitherto treated by the nauseous and pernicious use of copaiva and cubebs.

No. 3 has entirely supplanted the injurious use of mercury, hereby insuring to the sufferer speedy relief, dispersing all impurities and rooting out the venom of disease.

TRIESEMAR, Nos. 1, 2, and 3, are prepared in the form of a lozenge, devoid of taste and smell, and can be carried in the waistcoat pocket. Sold in tin cases, and divided into separate doses, as administered by Velpeau, Lallemand, Roux, Ricord, &c., &c. Price $3 each, or four cases for $9, which saves $3; and $27 cases, whereby there is a saving of $9. To be had wholesale and retail of Dr. BARROW, No. 194 Bleecker-st., New-York. Immediately on receiving remittance, Dr. Barrow will forward the Triesmar to any part of the world, securely packed, and addressed according to the instruction of the writer. Sold also by HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO BOTH SEXES, MARRIED AND SINGLE, IN HEALTH OR DISEASE.—DR. LARMONT'S PARIS, LONDON AND NEW-YORK MEDICAL ADVISER AND MARRIAGE GUIDE, 30th edition. Over 400 pages, 12mo, cloth, about one hundred electrotyped engravings. Price $1. Sold, also, by Wm. A. Townsend & Co., No. 46 Walker-st., near Broadway. Among its contents is the Anatomy of the sexual organs of the male and female, all their diseases and weaknesses; latest discoveries in reproduction; European Hospital practice; quacks, (advertisers,) their receipts and specifics; the author's unequalled Paris and London treatment. At No. 647 Broadway, up stairs, three blocks above St. Nicholas Hotel, New-York, from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M. Thursday, till 9 P. M.

We concur with other papers in recommending Dr. Larmont and his work.—Courier des Etats Unis, German Die Reform, Sunday Dispatch, Staats Zeitung, National Democrat, Essex Standard, Rahway Advocate, Empire City, Police Gazette, New-York Pick, New-Brunswick Times, Mercury, Atlas, &c.

DR. MAGNIN'S LUCINA CORDIAL OR ELIXIR OF LOVE.—This delightful and positive invigorant of the human system is fast superseding all other remedies; in fact, when its virtues become fully known, it will be the only remedy in use. Its action on the nervous system and reproductive organs is most extraordinary, allaying all over excitement, and infusing into the nervous organization that degree of tension which is requisite to give the human system the enjoyment of its full powers, both mentally and physically. As an appetizer it is equally remarkable; assimilated with the gastric juices of the stomach, it assists them in more readily dissolving all nutritious substances, and converting them into pure and wholesome blood; thus the digestion is improved, and the whole framework of man moves on in a more vigorous and harmonious manner thereby. Price $3 per bottle, or two bottles for $5. Principal office No. 208 Fulton-st., New-York.
DR. MAGNIN.

DR. WATSON TREATS ALL FORMS OF A certain kind of disease with a success which has won for him the confidence of the public. The remedies are safe, and cause no interruption from business. Dr. WATSON'S work—"The Cause and Cure"—has been pronounced by the reviewers the best popular compendium on all diseases of a private nature, including Spermatorrhœa and Debility, the results of early abuse, excess, or other causes. "Should be read by all persons previous to marriage."—Medical Gazette. Fine colored plates. Price $1. To be had of CHARLES MILLER, No. 436 Broadway, New-York, and of the author, at his private residence, No. 459 Broome-st., second block west of Broadway, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
☞ Separate consulting rooms.

DR. WARD, NO. 483 BROADWAY—PERforms the only permanent, satisfactory cure of private diseases. Remember, all afflicted, that by consulting Dr. WARD you will immediately experience that Richard's himself again. Cure guaranteed. Medicines provided for $1. Female diseases successfully treated. His monthly pills, $1 per box, never fail of effect intended. Try them, all ladies in certain situations. Office 483 Broadway, next Wallack's Theatre, up stairs. Private, and arranged that patients never meet.

DR. RALPH, AUTHOR OF THE PRACTICAL Private Treatise, &c., offices corner of Houston and Crosby sts., (No. 139 Crosby-st.;) hours, 10½ to 2, and 6 to 9, Sunday excepted. The author's reputation in this specialty guarantees the most scientific and honorable treatment. Stricture, sexual inefficiency, &c., radically cured by means exclusively his own, the result of an immense experience. Recent cases of disease cured immediately.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES—EXCLUSIVE treatment of diseases of females. Patients from a distance provided with private board, nursing, &c. Remedies for monthly derangements from $1 to $5. Relief guaranteed. The Mother's Almanac and Ladies' Private Circular, containing particulars, mailed free, in letter form, on receipt of four stamps. Office consultations gratis. Address Dr. THIERS, 98 West 24th-st., New-York.

DR. COOPER, NO. 14 DUANE-STREET, may be consulted on all diseases of a private nature. 26 years exclusively devoted to the treatment of secret diseases enables him to warrant a cure in all cases undertaken. The victims of misplaced confidence who have been misled by quack advertisements, can call on Dr. C. with the certainty of being radically cured or no charge.

WATTS' NERVOUS ANTIDOTE.—IS A sure relief for neuralgia, epilepsy, St. Vitus' dance, palsy, nervous headache, cough, loss of sleep and nervous debility. Wholesale of F. C. WELLS & CO., No. 115 Franklin-st. Retail of druggists generally, and of the proprietor, J. T. STRATTON, M. D., No. 111 4th-av., New-York.

HUNDREDS OF THE UNFORTUNATE are disappointed of a cure by not calling on DR. HUNTER at first, the Hunterian Dispensary, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, established in 1834, for the Preservation of Human Life. PRIVATE CONSULTATION.—Dr. HUNTER has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated no less than fifty thousand cases, without an instance of failure. His great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures certain diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours. It roots out the poisonous taint the blood is sure to absorb unless this remedy is used. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st. Book for nothing, that treats of the evil effects of early abuse and indulgence, is embellished with elaborate colored engravings, portraying every feature and phase of disease, exposes the fallacy of the ordinary modes adopted for the cure of local as well as hereditary maladies, and gives the only safe and infallible remedy for expunging every trace of the virus from the system.

DENTISTRY.

A CLEAN AND WHOLESOME APPEARANCE OF THE MOUTH IS THE STRONGEST LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION.—Pain and [illegible] teeth entirely prevented by my new method of [illegible] which is warranted. Teeth and fangs ingeniously removed without sensation. Old sets exchanged or repaired; and new sets in handsome style. [illegible]CENT W. BATE, Dentist, 835 Broadway, corner [illegible]

FURNITURE.

A NOVELTY WORTH FAMILY ATTENTION.
COLTON'S PATENT FOLDING IRON BEDSTEAD

Is so arranged that part of the bottom turns up, INCLOSING THE MATTRESS, which folds up in two halves. When wanted, the bottom part need but be turned down, and the BED IS READY FOR USE. When folded up, the Bedstead, with the bed, may be placed snugly away in a corner or closet. Thus the occupants of a moderately-sized apartment can turn it into A BEDROOM AT NIGHT AND A PARLOR BY DAY, enjoying in a single room all the comforts and conveniences of two. At the present time the N. Y. W. R. Co. are getting up many new and elaborate designs of this new and improved Bedstead.

CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

The announcement of every new season is an event of sufficient importance to warrant a few words to the public, who have a right to know in advance the intention of the managers. The season now about to commence presents so many new features, involving a general change of system, that the directors deem it their duty to state at length their future plans, the motives that induced them to adopt them, and the resources they possess to carry them out.

The new features of the present season may be epitomized as follows:

FIRST.—The union between B. ULLMAN and MAURICE STRAKOSCH.

SECOND.—The kindly support given to them by some of the principal stockholders of the Academy of Music.

THIRD.—The system pursued in the engagement of new artists.

FOURTH.—The production of a number of new operas and the revival of others that have been heretofore popular, with an entirely new mise en scene.

The union between Messrs. Ullman and Strakosch is a step that will consolidate the stability of the Opera in America. Since Mr. Maretzek has become the manager of the great Opera House in Havana, they have had the sole control of opera in the United States. Although personally, they have had the most friendly feelings towards each other, yet the fact of the existence of two different companies, possessing the same repertoire, wishing to play in the same cities, &c., &c., has interfered more with their own success, as with that of the opera, than the general public are aware. Their association has already enabled them to unite all the talent in one company, to organize the orchestra and chorus in a manner more complete and perfect than it ever has been before. By devoting their combined attention to one common object they have no doubt they will be able to promote their own interests, while the public will be gainers in every respect.

One of the greatest difficulties heretofore experienced by managers, was the want of capital required for what is called preparatory expenses of the season, for the engagement of new artists, their traveling expenses, and the customary advances that are to be made to them prior to their departure. Thanks to the liberality of certain stockholders, and other high-minded patrons of art, a large sum has been advanced to Mr. Ullman, which has rendered the opening of the present season comparatively free from all those obstacles, which, in spite of all energy and activity, could only partially be overcome. The sum thus obtained has not only enabled the managers to furnish new and magnificent scenery—to procure in Paris and Italy new music, costly dresses and properties, such as very few European Opera-houses possess—but it has greatly raised the standing of the Opera in America in the eyes of European artists, who had no great faith in engagements made on the sole responsibility of a single individual, acting without any control whatever, accustomed, as they are, to the direct interest shown by Government in granting to the manager the free use of the Opera-house, and in allowing him a yearly subvention in money proportionate to the importance of the theatre.

THE NEW ENGAGEMENTS.

The directors now approach a subject of great importance, viz., the system they have adopted in the engagements of the new artists. Until now no manager has considered his season safe unless he was able to get some London or Paris celebrity. So far has this idea obtained possession of them, that it has been a matter of secondary importance whether that reputation was borne out by artistic merit and justified by what the artist "is," and not by what he or she "was." In several instances the manager has paid very large sums for the engagement of an artist, whose name certainly filled the Opera-house for one or two nights, but whose salary for the balance of the season kept the managers in continued embarrassment. The directors need only allude amongst others to Mr. Formes, who drew on his opening night $3,000, and took his leave before a house of little over $600, besides occasioning a loss of several hundred dollars whenever he was put up as an attraction. So well do artists know the value American managers are wont to place upon a London or Paris reputation, that many sing for years in London at a nominal salary, for the purpose of obtaining an engagement in America, which, after a few months' service, leaves them in affluent circumstances. They actually make their fortunes when their voices are gone, and when they could obtain no first-class European engagement.

The directors believe that the American public are quite able to judge for themselves, without requiring the indorsement of London or Paris. Facts tend to prove that most artists who came to London with an American reputation, achieved there a success which took the most ardent American admirers by surprise. Malibran, Bosio, Castellan, Didier, Graziani sung, and were appreciated in New-York before they obtained their high position in Europe. To this list will assuredly be added Brignoli, whenever he thinks proper to accept the London or Paris engagements which are offered to him. To rely simply upon artists from London and Paris, many of them with worn-out voices, to pay them the exorbitant prices they or their managers ask, must ultimately tend to the ruin of the Opera in America and the American manager. From letters in the possession of the directors it can be proved that Mlle. Piccolomini, a few months before she signed the engagement with Mr. Lumley, was willing to come to America for one-fifth of the salary they were obliged to pay last year for her services; yet they had not the courage to engage her, because she was unknown in America, having only sung in Italy.

Guided, therefore, by this experience, and fully convinced that young and fresh voices must henceforth be the order of the day, the directors have determined to deviate from the old beaten track, and to obtain their artists from the same source from which the London and Paris managers get theirs. For this purpose Mr. STRAKOSCH, whose thorough musical knowledge eminently qualified him for the undertaking, proceeded direct to Italy, and after hearing a great number of artists, he succeeded in engaging ten new singers, notwithstanding the competition from European managers, which, however, compelled him to pay somewhat higher prices than he expected.

Amongst the new artists whom Mr. STRAKOSCH does not hesitate to recommend to public favor are some, who, although still in all the freshness of their natural gifts, possess high Italian reputations, that have stood the test of numerous seasons at the principal Italian Opera houses, whilst the others are classed among the rising stars on the operatic horizon, and are pointed out as the probable successors to those who will soon be compelled by the gradual decline of their powers to forsake a field which they have long and honorably occupied.

The following is a list of the new artists selected and engaged by Mr. STRAKOSCH:

PRIME DONNE SOPRANI.
MADEMOISELLE ADELINA SPERANZA.
MADEMOISELLE PHILIPINA CRESCIMANO.
PRIMA DONNA CONTRALTO.
MADEMOISELLE MARIA CRUVELLI.
PRIMI TENORI.
SIGNOR BEAUCARDE,
SIGNOR STIGELLI,
SIGNOR TESTA.
PRIMO BARITONO.
SIGNOR GAETANO FERRI.
PRIMO BASSO.
SIGNOR SUSINI.

The following favorites of last season have been retained:

MADAME COLSON, MADAME STRAKOSCH,
SIGNOR BRIGNOLI,
SIGNOR AMODIO, SIGNOR JUNCA,
MUSICAL DIRECTORS AND CONDUCTORS.
SIGNOR MUZIO, CARL BERGMAN, M. STRAKOSCH.
THE REGULAR ORCHESTRA

will consist of 45 performers. On grand Opera nights this number will be increased to 60.

THE CHORUS

will comprise 45 singers. For the new Operas it will be increased to 84.

In addition to the above list

SEVERAL POPULAR ARTISTS

now in this country, will appear on several evenings.

MADEMOISELLE ADELINA SPERANZA.

Mr. Strakosch's most difficult task was the engagement of a prima donna who could fill the place of Mlle. Piccolomini. He has every reason to believe that Mlle. Speranza is the most eligible. Though hardly nineteen, she is considered one of the most promising and rising singers of Italy. She has been only three years on the stage, and yet has met with an enthusiastic reception in every opera-house she has yet appeared in. To a figure and face of great loveliness, she joins a clear and fresh soprano voice, more remarkable for its sweetness than for its power, a degree of musical intelligence beyond her years, and a natural facility of adapting herself to the different characters she has to represent, yet retaining all the time that maidenly modesty which is the more charming for its rarity on the stage. Mlle. Speranza unquestionably possesses great talent, and with it much art-enthusiasm which will require but little time to be fully developed. Mlle. Speranza will appear in "La Traviata," "Ernani," and Verdi's new opera of "Aroldo."

MADEMOISELLE CRESCIMANO.

The other soprano is Mlle. CRESCIMANO, who possesses natural gifts of no common order, and has a fine stage figure and presence. Her voice is one of great power—strong, clear, fresh and vibrating; her style that of the Verdian school. Mlle. CRESCIMANO has been four years on the stage.

MADEMOISELLE CRUVELLI.

Mlle. CRUVELLI is the contralto. In face and figure she greatly resembles her celebrated sister, so famous for her beauty, with whom she has successfully appeared in London, Italy and Germany, until the marriage of the former with Baron VIGIER, and her consequent withdrawal from public life. Mr. STRAKOSCH recommends Mlle. CRUVELLI as possessing one of the finest contralto voices heard in this country, and does not doubt that she will fully sustain the great name she bears.

Amongst the male artists Signor FERRI, Signor BEAUCARDE and Signor STIGELLI occupy positions as high and as well-deserved as any artists who have ever appeared in this country.

SIGNOR FERRI.

Signor FERRI holds at present in Italy the same rank as RONCONI did before he made England his permanent residence, over whom he possesses the advantage of a commanding figure and a powerful voice. As an actor he is full of energy, and is preëminent in such rôles as Carlo, in "Ernani," "Rigoletto," "Don Giovanni," and Chevreuse, in "Maria di Rohan."

SIGNOR BEAUCARDE.

In Signor BEAUCARDE the public will find a tenor of the style of Mario and Salvi. He unquestionably is one of the first tenors of the day, and has had the honor of being the original Trovatore, Verdi having composed that celebrated opera expressly for him. The fact that when "Il Trovatore" was brought out in 1855, in Paris, Signor Beaucarde was engaged in preference to Fraschi, ni and Mirate, greatly enhanced his European reputation which, since that time, has been steadily increasing. He is the husband of Madame Albertini, one of the greatest Italian prime donne, and the names of "Beaucarde and Albertini," possess in Italy the same prestige as the names of "Mario and Grisi" in London. Madame Albertini was prevented from accompanying her husband from private reasons, but the directors have reason to hope that she will arrive in this country next year.

SIGNOR STIGELLI.

Signor STIGELLI has had a most honorable career, having sung in nearly every principal theatre in Europe. He is a tenor of the Tamberlik school, and principally excels in his higher notes. He is, therefore, fully qualified for the tenor parts in the "Huguenots," "La Juive" and the "Prophet." Signor Stigelli is a consummate musician, and enjoys no uncommon celebrity as a composer.

SIGNOR TESTA.

Signor TESTA is a young man of about 23, with a charming tenor voice, of not much power, but pure and flexible. Signor Testa is a tenore di grazia, and has been engaged for light operas, such as "La Sonnambula," "The Barber," "Linda," &c.

SIGNOR SUSINI.

Signor SUSINI has been the leading basso of the Mario and Grisi troupe, and, from the great impression he made on his first visit, the directors trust that his engagement will prove an agreeable one to the public.

THE ARTISTS OF LAST SEASON.

The services of Mesdames COLSON and STRAKOSCH, as well as of Signori BRIGNOLI, AMODIO and JUNCA, have been secured for the season in addition to those of the new artists. Madame Colson is another instance of the sound judgment of the American public. She has been engaged by Mr. Strakosch under the same circumstances as Mlle. Speranza and Mlle. Crescimano. She was an entire stranger to the public, but yet, after having sung the most important parts in which others have achieved triumphs that were thought to be unapproachable, she has stood her ground, and has become as popular as any artist now before the public.

THE MUSICAL DIRECTORS.

Signor Muzio and Carl Bergman will be the musical directors and conductors. Signor Muzio has won for himself the reputation of being one of the best conductors of Italian opera who ever came to this country. His musical education has been directly superintended by Signor Verdi, in whose family he has been brought up from his earliest age. As the only pupil of Verdi he is more qualified to bring out the new operas of his illustrious maestro than any other conductor.

While Signor Muzio will retain the sole control of the Italian repertoire, Carl Bergman will lead the operas of German composers, such as "Don Giovanni," "The Huguenots," &c. As conductor of the concerts of the Philharmonic Society and of the German Opera, he has given ample proofs of his fitness for this important post, and from his extended familiarity with the works—operatic and symphonic—of the great masters, the public can rest assured that full justice will be done to them at Mr. Bergman's hands.

THE ORCHESTRA AND CHORUS.

The orchestra and chorus are reorganized on the same principle. Some twenty fresh voices have been added to the chorus, whilst the orchestra, which always has been a leading feature at the Academy of Music, has been considerably increased.

THE REPERTOIRE.

The company engaged for the next season possesses therefore an abundance of fresh voices, and is so complete in every detail, that the directors are enabled to present the most difficult and complicated operas with that perfect ensemble which vouchsafes to the public a more genuine satisfaction, and insures a more solid success, than the individual efforts of a single artist, however great, could possibly do.

As regards the new opera to be produced during the present season, and the revivals of other celebrated works which have not been performed for several years, the directors beg to say that they will only be able to lay full particulars before the public after the several debûts will have taken place. The operas definitively selected up to the present moment are Verdi's SICILIAN VESPERS and AROLDO, Halevey's LA JUIVE, and Mozart's MAGIC FLUTE. The first new opera will be

Total	$343,872 78

The amount of the requisitions drawn by the Street Commissioner upon the Comptroller for the preceding six months was $636,784 64, and the aggregate for the nine months ending Sept. 30, was $980,657 42. Mr. Smith says: "Although by this statement there appears to be considerable balances to the credit of most of the appropriations, it must be borne in mind that this statement embraces merely the amount of requisitions drawn upon the Comptroller, and that in the case of several appropriations the amounts of outstanding bills and contracts in progress are nearly sufficient to absorb the whole balance. Among such are the appropriations for the Fire Department; Public Buildings; Construction, &c.; Fuel, Furniture, &c., and Stationery. In the Street Commissioner's report are statements from the heads of the various Bureaux in his Department.

The Superintendent of Street Improvements furnishes a detailed statement of all vouchers drawn by him during the quarter, amounting to $28,203 14, of all assessment lists received, bids opened, contracts signed, and final payments made, and makes suggestions of great importance.

The vouchers for work performed in the Bureau of Wharves amount to $21,836 72; Roads, $51,845 45; Lands and Places, $7,008 29; Lamps and Gas, $104,-196 78; Repairs and Supplies, $38,994 24. The Collector of Assessments has received for collection $192,482 28; has collected $969,097 66, and has returned uncollected $351,367 10. Assessment lists amounting to $842,950 19 remain in his hands. Mr. Smith, in conclusion, calls attention to the importance of making definite appropriations for each year.

The communication was laid over, and it was directed that it be printed.

The Board passed resolutions naming places for holding the polls in the Fourth Assembly and other Districts.

Two vetoes were received from the Mayor, with his objections to signing the resolutions in favor of remitting the assessments on St. Andrew's (Roman Catholic) Church and the Colored Orphan Asylum.

The Board adopted the resolution directing the Croton Board to take up the Russ pavement in Broadway, between Reade and Duane streets.

The report of the Croton Aqueduct Committee in favor of adopting the ordinance for an additional issue of "Water Stock," ($678,900,) was presented and laid over.

The Special Committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Central Park Commissioners, submitting an ordinance providing for a further issue of the stock of the Central Park Improvement Fund, was laid over.

Alderman STARR moved that the message of the Mayor appointing Mr. Van Schaick President of the Croton Board, be taken from the table. It was lost.

A communication was received from the City Inspector, submitting detailed statements from all the Health Wardens, setting forth the sad condition of the pavements of most of the streets of the City. Mr. Delavan recommends that the Croton Board be directed to repair the pavements immediately. The communication was referred to the Committee on Streets.

The Street Commissioner transmitted a communication to the Board, asking for an appropriation of $20,000 for "fuel, furniture, lighting, cleaning and supplies to Corporation offices," calling attention to the fact that the original appropriation is exhausted, and that he had originally asked for $60,000 for this appropriation, and had been indorsed in this regard by the Common Council, but the Legislature had agreed to the appropriation of only $25,000. It was referred to the Committee on Finance and the Board adjourned to Thursday.

THE BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

Extension of the Third-avenue—The Great Eastern—Communication from the Street Commissioner.

The Board of Councilmen met last evening. Councilman CORNELL in the Chair.

On motion of Councilman LENT, the Croton Department was directed to repair the pavement in Dey-street, from Broadway to Greenwich-street.

Resolutions were adopted requesting the Street Department to inform the Board by what authority a pier is in progress of construction, foot of Eleventh-street, East River; to print 4,500 additional copies of the decisions of the Corporation Counsel for the past ten years; to extend the Third-avenue the full width of 100 feet to the Harlem River; directing the City Inspector to advertise for proposals for removing night soil, and requesting the same official to report by what authority he is cleaning the streets of the City.

Councilman OTTARSON offered the following preamble and resolutions.

Whereas the steamship Great Eastern, the last and most important experiment in steam navigation, is soon expected to arrive at one of our ports, and the magnitude and importance of the event is such as to demand the attention of the commercial emporium of the Western World; therefore,

Resolved, That the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of New-York respectfully invite the owners and officers of the Great Eastern to visit this City, and, if practicable, to bring the vessel here.

Resolved, That a Committee of three from each Board be appointed, whose duty it shall be to cause this invitation to be officially tendered, and to report what measures may be necessary to give it full effect.

The preamble and resolutions were adopted.

The Street Commissioner sent in a communication in reply to a resolution of the Board directing him to make a contract with the present contractor for taking down and rebuilding the sidewalks and an entire new front to the Fifteenth Ward Station-house. The Commissioner, after calling the attention of the Board to the Charter of 1857, says he cannot make a contract with a specified person to do a work at a given price, and that the work cannot be done otherwise unless ordered by a vote of the Common Council. He recommends that he be directed to have the work done without contract. The paper was finally sent back to the Commissioner, as the contracts were not satisfactory to the Board.

A communication made to the Board of Aldermen by the Street Inspector relative to the business of his Department was received, and the Board adjourned.

THE HEALTH OF THE CITY.

Improvements in the City Inspector's Department—The Mortality of the Last Nine Days.

The health of the City never was better than it is now. Of the one million—more or less—of inhabitants of the Metropolis a large number are immigrants, who come hither from all parts of the world, and import disease and the seeds of death as surely and as regularly as the dry goods merchants import their goods, and yet when to the bill of mortality of the City proper we add the number of deaths which occur at Blackwell's, Randall's and Ward's Islands, and at the Hospitals and other institutions within the City limits, it is found that the proportional mortality of New-York thus estimated is greater than that of London only by a very small fraction. Dr. CYRUS RAMSAY, the efficient Register of Records in the City Inspector's Department, informs us that he has recently received documents which demonstrate this fact. He has made it a study to ascertain from reliable data the precise ratio of the deaths which occur in the Metropolis from week to week to the population of the City. He says those who attempt to make the calculation or compare the mortality of New-York with that of other large cities almost invariably do injustice to New-York; they always place the population at too low a figure, and the deaths at too high a figure. The last error has arisen from the defective classification and mode of reporting the deaths which has heretofore prevailed. As we have previously stated, the classification of the still-born under the same head with deaths from disease, under the old system, added greatly to the apparent mortality. This method of classification prevails in no other of the principal cities of the world. In London the still-born are neither registered among the births, nor recorded among the deaths; they do not appear in the tabular statement of the Register-General at all. In this City the still-born have constituted one-fifteenth of the total number of deaths, under the old system of registration. It is obvious how greatly the number of deaths has been over-rated in this way. All this Dr. RAMSAY has rectified. Hereafter the City Inspector's weekly report will be published every Tuesday morning as the law directs that it shall be, and will include the mortality of each week entire, including the whole of Saturday. Hitherto the mortality of a part, at least, of the latter day in each week was necessarily excluded from the report, because the latter was made up on that day. In future the report will be made out every Monday, and will present a complete exhibit of the mortality of the preceding week. This important change is made this week, and, therefore, the following report presents a statement of the mortality of the last nine days.

WEEKLY REPORT OF DEATHS—From the 1st day of October to the 9th day of October, 1859.—Men, 122; Women, 83; Boys, 168; Girls, 127; Total, 500; Adults, 205; Children, 295; Males, 290; Females, 210; Colored Persons, 6.

DANIEL E DELAVAN, City Inspector.

CITY INSPECTOR'S DEPARTMENT, New-York, Oct. 10, 1859.

The comparative statement of the deaths during the last week, and of those which occurred during the corresponding weeks of 1857 and 1858, is necessarily omitted by the City Inspector this week, because the report covers the mortality of nine days.

Cleaning the Streets.

THE COST HITHERTO AND THE COST HEREAFTER.

From the statement of the Health Wardens to the City Inspector, of "the work of the wards" for the week ending Oct. 8, we learn that the total cost of the street-cleaning operations for the past week was $5,365 89½. The number of loads of dirt, manure, and ashes, removed from the streets, was 14,699, and the number of men employed was 277. On Sunday night, Mr. Smith commenced his street-cleaning operations with the sweeping-machines, under the new contract just entered into with him by the City Inspector. The total cost of cleaning the City per week, under the new arrangement, we are informed by Mr. Delavan, will be about $3,000. How it will work is yet to be demonstrated. Mr. Smith says that all he asks of anybody is to wait till the end of the week, and then examine his work. Many a man, hitherto employed in street-cleaning, is complaining, like another Othello, that his "occupation's gone," under the new order of things, and some of the dissatisfied, it is said, are inclined to throw obstacles in the way of the successful contractor. He, however, need fear no enemy but prosperity, if he keeps the City clean and saves the City $2,000 a week.

Convention for the Appointment of District Court Clerks—Yet Another Adjournment.

The Mayor and Aldermen met in Convention for the purpose of appointing Clerks of the District Courts, at 3 P. M., yesterday, the Mayor presiding There was barely a quorum present, and Alderman BOOLE moved that the Convention adjourn to Thursday next, and that in the meantime the members be notified to attend.

Alderman PECK moved that the District Attorney be requested to submit to the Comptroller his opinion with regard to the disputed point, whether the Convention has the right to appoint District Court Clerks, or whether the appointing power rests with the Governor.

The Corporation Counsel was to have furnished the Convention with his opinion on this point at the time of the present meeting, but no opinion from him had been received.

After some discussion, the Mayor finally appointed Aldermen OWENS, PECK and ADAMS a committee to obtain such an opinion from the District Attorney, and the Convention adjourned to Thursday next, at 3 P. M.

The Clerk was especially directed to notify all the members to be present at that time. It will be remembered that it was on the ground that the members of the Convention by which the District Clerks were appointed in 1857, were not duly notified according to law, of the meeting at which those appointments were made, that the Supreme Court declared their appointment invalid.

The Westchester County Railroad.

OPPOSITION OF PROPERTY OWNERS—NO MORE CITY RAILROADS WANTED.

The Committee on Railroads of the Board of Aldermen, to which the petition of the incorporators of the Westchester County Railroad Company, for permission to lay its rails in certain of the streets of the City, was referred, held another meeting at 2 P. M. yesterday. A number of property owners appeared before it to oppose the project, and the opinion was freely expressed, that that part of the railroad which was to run through Westchester County would never be constructed, and that the only object of the incorporators was to establish another City Railroad in spite of the opposition of the taxpayers of the City. Messrs. ISAAC L. PLATT, A. W. SPIES and JOHN J. PHELPS opposed the project strenuously. The latter said the franchise was worth $5,000,000, and the City should not grant it lightly. At 3 o'clock the Committee took a recess for half an hour.

J. D. WILLIAMSON addressed the members of the Committee after they had reassembled. He said the men in favor of the project were not Westchester men, but New-York men, who lived on public plunder. When the people opposed such plans, it was always charged that somebody wanted to be bought off, but in this case it was not so. He resided on the Seventh-avenue. The residents of that avenue had paid $15,000 to prevent the construction of this road through that avenue.

WM. PHYFE, of Fulton-street, opposed the measure, putting forward similar ideas to those already advanced.

Mr. CARMAN, of Carmansville, was strongly in favor of it. He owned a hundred houses in the upper part of the Island, which were not worth near so much as they would be if there was a railroad passing by them. He owned property in the First Ward, too, which had depreciated in value considerably for want of proper railroad communication with the upper part of the City. Stores which brought $2,500 per annum a few years ago now rented for only $700 to 1,000. In answer to a question, he stated that he was interested in the franchise.

The Committee at this point adjourned, with the understanding that another meeting should be held before the matter was finally disposed of. The day of the next meeting was not named.

Central Park Board.

ANDREW H. GREEN, Esq., late President of the Central Park Board, has resigned that office to accept the position of Treasurer, which Mr. ELLIOTT recently resigned. Mr. RICHARD M. BLATCHFORD has been elected President of the Board.

EMPLOYMENT OF CAMELS IN THE UNITED STATES SERVICE.—A letter has recently been received by the Secretary of War from Superintendent BEALE, dated Fort Tejon, California, in which the writer speaks in the strongest terms of the great advantage to be derived from the employment of camels in the public service in the West. He states that he lately tried effectually the comparative value of mules and camels as pack animals, and the experiment proved beyond all question the great superiority of the camel, both as regards rate of speed and amount of burden. From what he had read, he dreaded the difficulties which seemed to present themselves in breeding them; but his experience had satisfied him that they were as easily bred as cows and calves. He prefers them, for all such purposes that he has engaged them on, to three times the same number of horses and mules.—Washington Star.

A SHERIFF IN TROUBLE.—The Secretary of State has submitted to Gov. MORGAN a formal complaint against Sheriff GREGORY, of Cattaraugus County, charging him with having neglected or refused to cause the publication of that part of the official election notice which refers to the vote upon the canal loan of $2,500,000. The Sheriff sent the official notice to the Olean Advertiser, omitting this passage, and the editor of the paper complained of the mutilation. Mr. TUCKER demands the removal of the Sheriff.

LAW REPORTS.

Action for Assault—Verdict against Councilman Wild.

Thomas Asten vs. Horatio N. Wild.—The defendant in this case is Councilman Wild, the well known confectioner on Broadway. The action is brought to recover damages for an assault alleged to have been committed by defendant upon the plaintiff, on June 14, 1858. The cause came on for trial in the Supreme Court, before Justice ROOSEVELT.

The plaintiff was the first witness. He testified to the commission of the alleged assault, stating that defendant catched hold of him, kicked him, tore his clothes, and threatened to pitch him into an excavation near by, which was only prevented by the plaintiff calling upon the by-standers to protect him.

On cross-examination, it appeared that the plaintiff was not living with his family, and that he had had no regular business for twenty years. Witness volunteered the remark that Wild must have been at a "dinner-party" that afternoon. Witness was sixty-nine years of age.

Plaintiff here rested, and Archibald Campbell was called for the defence. He testified that he was with Wild at the time of the alleged assault upon the plaintiff, and he was positive that Wild did not strike the plaintiff, nor seize hold of him.

Mr. Wild was called in his own behalf, and stated that he only stopped the plaintiff and called him a ——— scoundrel, telling him that in his (Wild's) opinion that was his character; he did nothing more.

On cross-examination he stated that he had never told any one that he did strike Asten, nor had he been drinking. He had pointed out Mr. Asten to an officer who was looking for him, intending to arrest him.

The testimony being closed, counsel agreed to conform themselves in summing up to ten minutes each, the defendants' counsel observing jocosely that while he would not claim that his client's having been a councilman entitled him to any more respect than another man, he did not wish his opponent to dwell upon the fact as raising a presumption of bad character. Mr. Shaffer said he would not do so, and the summing up proceeded on the basis of this arrangement.

Justice ROOSEVELT charged the jury, leaving them to say, upon the evidence, whether the assault had been proven. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for $100.

Mr. Shaffer for plaintiff; Mr. Clark for defendant.

The Schooner Elizabeth—Suit to Recover her.

James Chambers vs. Henry Heiser Grantzon.—This action was brought to recover possession of the schooner Elizabeth, with damages, for the unlawful detention of her, by defendant. The trial of the case was commenced in the Superior Court, before Justice SLOSSON.

The complaint alleged that the vessel was registered in the Custom House in 1853, and was worth $7,500; and showed title in the plaintiffs, and the detention of the vessel by the defendant, &c.

The answer denied all the allegations of the complaint, and averred that the vessel Elizabeth belonged to one C. W. M. Heddle, of Sierre Leone, Africa. The answer also averred that the plaintiffs were not the real parties in interest, but that the proper party to bring the action for damages was the Astor Mutual Insurance Company. On the trial it appeared that the vessel belonged to the plaintiff, who sent her in charge of Capt. Stanhope, with the defendant as mate, on a trading voyage down the western coast of Africa; that she became distressed by peril of the sea, and put in at Sierra Leone, where she was sold by the captain to Heddle, a British subject, who refitted her and sent her to sea again, under the name of Emily, and in charge of the defendant as master, who sailed with her to this port, whereupon this suit was brought.

Plaintiffs put several witnesses on the stand to prove that the ship was worth the amount claimed when she sailed from this port in 1854, and that she was entirely seaworthy. They also brought evidence to show that when the vessel returned under another name, she was changed but little, having been only partially coppered anew.

The defendant's witnesses testified that the vessel was much damaged when she put in at Sierra Leone, and that upon her return to this port she was greatly changed.

The case is still on. Tracy & Noyes for plaintiff; Benedict, Burr & Benedict, for defendant.

Verdicts.

Jules Hernault vs. Anthony Thornton et al.—In this case, lately tried in the Common Pleas, before Judge DALY, the Jury have found a verdict for the plaintiff for $6,500.

Elise Schwartzenback by guardian ad litem vs. Herman Colell.—This was an action of slander, and was tried in the Marine Court, before Justice MCCARTHY, without a Jury, a few days since. The facts of the case were given in the TIMES of Saturday last.

The decision of Justice MCCARTHY has been rendered, awarding the plaintiff $100 damages.

The Prize-Fighters—Card from the Benecia Boy.

NEW-YORK, Monday, Oct. 10, 1859.

I have been informed, through the medium of the public Press, and from those who were present and heard him, that Mr. MORRISEY stated a few days since that he would fight any man in the world, and me in particular, for $10,000. If this indeed be Mr. MORRISEY'S wish I shall be most happy to accommodate him, either before or after my contest with SAYERS for the championship of England. I will put up a forfeit to fight him for $10,000 at the time and place that may be agreed upon, according to the rules of the Prize Ring.

MONDAY, Oct. 10—P. M.

The Weekly Average of the Banks of the City of New-York, on Saturday, Oct. 8, 1859, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of Oct. 1:

Decrease in Loans	$997,125
Increase in Specie	234,018
Increase in Circulation	248,037
Decrease in Undrawn Deposits	1,310,898

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, and including, also, the Sub-Treasury statement of Saturday, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

COMPARATIVE RECAPITULATION.

	Oct. 9, 1858.	Oct. 8, 1859.	Oct. 1, 1859.
Capital	$67,325,600	$68,645,000	$68,645,000
Loans	123,599,250	117,211,627	118,208,752
Specie	29,170,200	19,493,144	19,259,126
Circulation	7,980,519	8,585,739	8,337,702
Gross Deposits	105,565,930	92,550,175	91,823,441
Exchanged	19,175,716	23,048,968	21,011,336
Undrawn	86,390,214	69,501,207	70,812,105
In Sub-Treasury	10,476,647	4,714,078	5,230,467

The Specie return on the present Statement is somewhat better than looked for, showing a small increase to the line of the previous week. There is another liberal reduction of loans and discounts, growing out of the heavy mercantile payments of 6th October, which were met with ease and general punctuality. In the present state of the foreign exchanges and the reduced line of discounts, the Statement is received with much favor on the Street this afternoon. The price of money to-day to the Stock Brokers, as the rule, is 6 ₩ cent., with rather less activity than at the close of last week. Discounts, outside of Bank, are 6@6½ ₩ cent. for short acceptances on strictly first-class names, and 7 ₩ cent. for lists of double name paper of the same choice grade, running 4 to 6 months. To these rates from 1 to 2 ₩ cent. is added where the paper is classed fair. The Exchange on London for the Cunard steamer, sailing direct on Wednesday, opens at the decline noticed for the packet of Saturday, 110 ₩ cent. for standard Bankers', and 109⅞ for transient Bank bills. Some good merchant bills were done to-day at 109½ ₩ cent. Francs are 5f. 15@5f. 13¾.

The Stock Market opened early in the day with some signs of recovery from the extreme depression on Saturday afternoon. There were buyers of New-York Central at 79 ₩ cent., and a considerable line of Chicago and Rock Island, Galena and Chicago and Michigan Central was taken at the reduced prices. As the dealings of the day advanced, and after the Bank Statement was made public, an advance of full 1 ₩ cent. on the Share list was established, the whole market leaving off firm at the Second Board. Of New-York Central 1,000 shares were taken at 79¾ ₩ cent., buyer 3 days, the very last price paid being 79⅝, regular, that is deliverable to-morrow. Galena closed 72; Rock Island, 64@64¼; Michigan Guaranteed recovered to 18; Michigan Central, 43@43¼; Illinois Central, 67¼@67½; Toledo, 19½@20; Panama, 117¼@117½, and Pacific Mail, last sale, 73 ₩ cent. Hudson and Harlem were both steady at 35½@⅝, and Erie shares were wanted at $5. The mortgages of the Company are also firmer, the Fourths in demand at 40 ₩ cent, and the Thirds at 65 ₩ cent. Some of the other Railway mortgages are in good request, Harlem Firsts at 93 ₩ cent., and Illinois Central Constructions at 84½@84¾ ₩ cent. ex-dividend. The business in State Stocks is small, but prices firm. The General Market left off with a firm feeling.

The English plan for maintaining the Bonds and Shares of the Erie Company intact, and to finish the Long Dock Improvement, published this morning, is received with favor, and the following ticket for Directors, to be voted for to-morrow, embracing the names of both the English delegates, and of Mr. BANCROFT DAVIS, Trustee to the third and later mortgages, and Mr. NATHANIEL MARSH, the Receiver, has been distributed: Messrs. Nathaniel Marsh, Samuel Marsh, Daniel Drew, Dudley S. Gregory, John Arnot, of Elmira, William B. Skidmore, Herrmann Gelpcke, Ralph Mead, D. A. Cushman, Ambrose S. Murray, of Goshen, William Evans, of England, George T. Cobb, Robert H. Berdell, William F. Splatt, of England, J. C. B. Davis, Henry L. Pierson and Henry Shelden.

The Toledo Blade, of Oct. 6, says of the Wabash Valley Road:

> "At a meeting of the stockholders of the above-named Company, held yesterday at its office in this city, the following-named Directors were elected for the ensuing year, viz.: A. Boody, John Ross, Isaac H. Knox, B. Wilson, J. B. Varnum, N. A. Murdock, Geo. D. Morgan, and G. F. Taulman, of New-York; H. Pumpelly, Albany; W. Colburn and W. Baker, Toledo; R. Brackenridge, Fort Wayne; Geo. Cecil, Logansport; James Spears, Lafayette; W. Kent, Williamsport. The new Board afterwards met at the same place and elected the following officers of the Company for the current year, viz.: A. Boody, President; W. Colburn, Vice-President; J. R. Osborn, Treasurer; J. W. Drummond, Secretary and Auditor; G. H. Burrows, Superintendent."

The net receipts of the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company for the month of September were as follows:

1858	$84,833 21
1859	97,218 62
Net increase	$12,385 41

The receipts for the year are as follows:

1858	$975,853 86
1859	1,076,322 19
Increase	$100,468 33

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

LONDON, Wednesday.

The Daily News' City Article says the funds opened with a dull appearance on Tuesday, under the influence of the discussions respecting the new boundary difficulty with America. Scarcely any reduction, however, occurred in prices, and Consols finally closed firm at an advance of about 3-16ths. There was an increased demand for money, but few bills were discounted below the Bank minimum. A fresh rise had taken place in Silver, owing to the demand for shipment to China.

The Times' City Article says the funds on Tuesday opened without alteration, and experienced a fractional improvement towards the close. In the open discount market, the rate for best three months' bills continued at 2¾ ₩ cent. The Railway market was firm and generally advanced.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

The sales of Cotton for the three days preceding the departure of the Indian from Liverpool were 21,000 bales, of which 1,000 were to speculators, and 5,000 for export. The market closed dull at easier, though quotably unchanged prices.

STATE OF TRADE.

The advices from Manchester are unfavorable. There was but little inquiry for goods, and prices were weak, a slight reduction having been acceded to in some cases.

LIVERPOOL BREADSTUFFS MARKET.

The BREADSTUFFS market was dull. RICHARDSON, SPENCE & Co. quote: FLOUR dull, but steady. WHEAT quiet, but steady, at 7s. 4d.@8s. for Western Red, and 9s.@9s. 6d. for White. CORN had a declining tendency, with a very limited inquiry.

The country WHEAT markets were generally 1s. lower.

LIVERPOOL PROVISION MARKET.

BEEF was firm. PORK dull and nominal. BACON quiet; short Middles, boneless, 47s. 6d. LARD dull, at 54s.@56s. TALLOW closed quiet, but steady.

LIVERPOOL PRODUCE MARKET.

POT ASHES were quiet, at 26s. 6d.@26s. 9d. PEARL ASHES quiet, at 27s. 6d.@27s. 9d. SUGAR dull. COFFEE steady. RESIN steady, at 4s. 2d.@4s. 3d. for common. SPIRITS TURPENTINE steady, at 36s. OILS unchanged.

LONDON MARKETS.

In the London market BREADSTUFFS were dull. SUGAR heavy, and 6d.@1s. lower. COFFEE firm. RICE firm. PIG IRON steady, at 51s. 3d.@51s. 6d.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

The MONEY market was unchanged with a good demand.

CONSOLS closed Tuesday at 95⅛@95¼ for money, and 95⅜@95⅜ for account.

AMERICAN STOCKS.

Illinois Central shares were quoted at 35¾@35½ discount; do. Seven ₩ Cent. Bonds, 78; New-York Central shares, 70@72.
